Approximately $71 in cash, packages of frozen meat, a woman's wristwatch and a clock radio were stolen from his home Sunday night, James Rayl, 2111 LaCroft Ave., reported to police.

Firemen Hurt Battling Fire At Old School

Interior Destroyed At Former Central Building In Chester

Two volunteer firemen suffered injuries while battling an early morning fire Sunday which destroyed the interior of the abandoned Central School building at Chester.

Twenty - three men manning four trucks from the Chester and Newell departments brought the blaze under control after battling several hours.

Reported about 5:50 by a nearby resident, the blaze apparently originated in the basement, according to Chester firemen. It spread to a classroom and the hallway on the ground floor, and then to an additional classroom and hallway on the second floor and into the attic above.

The building, constructed in 1906, is located at the corner of Indiana Ave. and 3rd St. It has not been used for three years.

The 15 Chester volunteer firemen called on the Newell department about 7 for assistance. Eight men on two trucks were sent to supplement the efforts to put out the raging fire.

The extreme cold added to the difficulties encountered by the firemen. One Chester volunteer, Fred Mader of 842 Neptune Ave., was treated at City Hospital for frostbite of the hands.

Couple Flees Lisbon Blaze

Pair's Possessions Destroyed In Fire

LISBON — An overheated furnace was blamed for a fire which burned out a two-story, four - room home on Brookfield Ave. about 1 p. m. Sunday.

The frame and asbestos shingle structure is owned by Carmen Perinno of Brookfield Ave. and was occupied by Roy Fatherly and his wife, Irma.

The blaze destroyed all the possessions of the two except the clothes they were a wearing, a television set and a coffee table. Mrs. Fatherly said they have insurance.

They were not injured by the fire and are living temporarily with the family of Rudy Novak next door. Lisbon volunteer firemen extinguished the fire but not before it burned out the kitchen and a bedroom above. Firemen also kept a hose on the Orrie Wells residence next door.

Although the house is covered by insurance, Perrino said he was undecided whether to rebuild.

Mrs. Fatherly said she turned on the furnace draft shortly after noon, then turned it down again when she went next door to the Novaks on an errand.

She said she heard her husband shouting from the porch that he smelled smoke. Fatherly is blind. Mrs. Fatherly found smoke pouring from cracks in the kitchen floor.

Wirtz Faces Quizzing On Wage Boost

Labor Leaders Set To Grill Secretary On Pay Standards

By NEIL GILBRIDE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz is due for a grilling by the nation's top labor leaders on President Johnson's efforts to hold down wage demands which the White House considers inflationary.

AFL-CIO officials, who have long denounced White House wage guidelines, reportedly will charge that the Johnson administration used a racial discrimination suit in an effort to pressure high-wage construction unions into moderating pay increases.

Wirtz, who has had no known preliminary talks here about growing labor complaints against Johnson, told a newsman he would talk about anything the AFL-CIO Executive Council wants to bring up.

Wirtz appears today before the opening session of the council, the policy-making body of the politically potent labor federation which has more than 13 million members in 129 affiliated unions.

Wirtz said his closed-door discussions with the 29-member Executive Council will be informal.

AFL-CIO President George Meany and other council members also will discuss with Wirtz their demands for an increase in the federal minimum wage from $1.25 to $1.40 this year, $1.60 next year, and $1.75 in 1968. This is one subject on which the labor leaders feel Wirtz agrees with them.

Federation officials fear Johnson may follow the recommendations of his Council of Economic Advisers for raises to $1.40 this year and $1.70 in 1970, which AFL-CIO sources said would kick off a major war between labor and the Johnson administration.

The touchiest questioning Wirtz will face is the construction unions' charge that a federal civil rights suit filed against several building trades unions in St. Louis was part of a move to force them into a formula proposed by Wirtz to limit wage increases. The presidents of 18 construction unions flatly rejected it last week.

The charge by President C. J. Haggerty of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Department linking the racial discrimination suit to the wage proposal reportedly prompted the White House to assign Wirtz to placate the labor chieftains.

President Johnson reportedly is worried about the possibility of losing much of his Democratic majority in Congress in this year's elections, and lack of political support from labor would increase the chance of big Democratic losses.

U.S., Viet Troops Push Against Guerrilla Forces

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—American and South Vietnamese troops moved on two fronts against a hard-core regiment of 900 to 1,000 Viet Cong today after the guerrillas rained mortar shells on U.S. Marine and Vietnamese positions during the night.

In the air, the United States lost a jet bomber and two helicopters.

The U.S. 7th Fleet destroyer Orleck joined the ground assault by blasting the coast of Quang Ngai Province with 309 rounds of five-inch shells, either wrecking or damaging more than 100 buildings in an area the Viet Cong have used for rest camps.

The air war continued in North and South Viet Nam.

Below the 17th parallel frontier, heavy Communist ground-fire struck two B57 Canberra tactical bombers flying tight support of South Vietnamese troops closing in on 40 to 50 Viet Cong in an open area.

One of the twin-engine jets crashed with its rear fuel tank ablaze but the pilot, Capt. J. T. Stanley, 34, of New Boston, Tex., and the navigator, Capt. Henry S. Jorgren, 36, of Lisbon, Conn., were picked up uninjured by an Army helicopter after bailing out. The other Canberra limped back to Da Nang, 45 miles south of Hue.

Two U.S. Army helicopters collided Sunday about 10 feet off the ground at Bien Hoa, 20 miles northeast of Saigon, killing five Americans. Twelve were injured, a U.S. spokesman said.

U.S. Air Force and Navy pilots returned from missions over North Viet Nam Sunday with reports they hit bridges, roads, storage areas, two radar sites and some staging areas. The heavy bombardment is aimed at slowing the supply of men and arms to the south.

The Strategic Air Command's Guam-based B52s pounded Bing Duong Province near the Cambodian frontier about 35 miles north of Saigon.

U.S. spokesmen did not mention any losses of aircraft.

The U.S. Marines reactivated Operation Double Eagle, while the U.S. 1st Cavalry (Airmobile Division) continued with Operation White Wing to the west in an effort to trap the Communist regiment. The destroyer was called in to make a Viet Cong retreat to the coast as costly as possible.

In an offshoot of Operation White Wing, the 1st Cavalry reported it had killed 34 Viet Cong 13 miles southwest of Bong Son, headquarters for the Allied coastal campaign 300 miles north of Saigon. Since White Wing began, the cavalrymen report they have killed 1,072 Viet Cong, captured 246 and seized 202 weapons.

The Canberras were strafing Viet Cong positions while South Vietnamese regiments were reported in heavy contact with the Communists. The B57 caught fire on the second pass.

Within seven minutes, an Army helicopter piloted by Maj. Golbert R. Hickenbottom of Sacramento, Calif., and WO Theodore Dexter of Fayetteville, N.C., picked up the two airmen.

The heavy action brought a vow from Premier Nguyen Cao Ky to continue fighting the Viet Cong until they are eradicated from South Viet Nam. He said they are "suffering very heavy losses" and that they could ex-

President Declares Defense Pact Unit Doesn't Fill Needs

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle said today any foreign troop elements in France after April 4, 1969 will have to be under French command only. That is the date when members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization can choose to leave NATO.

In the first news conference of his second term in office, the French president declared NATO no longer is adapted to present-day needs. He said France intends to "progressively modify dispositions now in force."

This was taken to mean that he would continue to withdraw French element from NATO but in such a manner as to permit the 14 other NATO allies to adjust to it.

The United States now has about 20,000 troops in France, running supply and other bases. In addition, the French president's statement that foreign troops would have to come under French command threw into question the status of such big Allied installations as NATO headquarters near the Bois de Boulogne in Paris.

De Gaulle told nearly 1,000

Demonstrators Protest Humphrey In Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived tonight to discuss American Viet Nam policies in the Philippine capital where left-wing demonstrators shouting "Humphrey go home" besieged the U.S. Embassy only a few hours before.

The airport was cordoned off by an unusually large number of security forces.

Humphrey in an airport statement said he would talk to president Ferdinand E. Marcos Tuesday on the Viet Nam situation.

Humphrey arrived from New Zealand as the Philippine Congress began debates on Marcos' proposal to send a 2,000-man combat engineer unit to Viet Nam.

This was the proposal which drove demonstrators into the streets about 1,000 of them marched from the presidential palace to Congress and then to the U.S. Embassy.

The demonstrators, opposing not only Humphrey's visit but U.S. policies in Viet Nam, dispersed about an hour and a half before the vice president's arrival. But they said there would be another demonstration Tuesday.

The demonstrations by students, civil servants and farmers were called to oppose a $4-million bill in the Philippine Congress that would finance the sending of 2,000 combat engineers to Viet Nam.

Earlier today Humphrey conferred with Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake of New Zealand at Parliament House in Wellington. A handful of demonstrators stood silently outside with signs denouncing the Viet Nam war.

During his arrival in Wellington Sunday from Canberra, Australia, Humphrey's car was rushed by a sign-swinging demonstrator who was hurled back by police. In Canberra the previous day about 150 demonstrators called Humphrey a "warmonger."

During the vice president's Australian visit, Prime Minister Harold Holt said his government may soon announce a decision whether to send more Australian soldiers to Viet Nam. There are now 1,500 Australians supporting U.S., South Vietnamese, Korean and New Zealand troops.

New Telephone Numbers Slated For Midland Area

Midland area residents will receive new telephone numbers when the new central office of the Pennsylvania Bell Telephone Co. is placed in service May 15.

The Midland office, located on Sunrise Hill, is part of a $1.5 million service improvement program in the Beaver Valley. The office will serve Midland, Ohio View, Smiths Ferry and portions of the Rochester exchange area.

Robert Cousin, Bell's Rochester manager, said: "When the building goes into service, there will be some number rearrangements affecting the local customers."

According to Cousin, Midland telephone numbers will continue to be prefixed by "643," but the last four digits will be changed.

Smiths Ferry numbers will be unchanged, but the telephone accounts will be served by the company's Rochester office instead of the East Liverpool office.

Ohioview customers will get completely new telephone numbers starting with the numerals "643."

Moro Due Premier's Post In Italian Move

ROME (AP) — Aldo Moro is expected to end Italy's latest political crisis by accepting the premiership once more.

Moro, a Christian Democrat, has reportedly reached policy agreements with leaders of three other parties expected to join his coalition government.

Those parties—Socialist, Democratic Socialist and Republican —meet today and Tuesday to ratify the agreements.

Indonesia's Defense Chief Seen Ousted

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno ousted armed forces chief Abdul Haris Nasution as Indonesia's defense minister today, Radio Jakarta reported.

It was Nasution who led the Indonesian army in crushing the Communist uprising last October.

He is known as an implacable foe of communism, long having kept communists out of Indonesia's Cabinet. He became defense minister in 1963 after years of leadership in the army.

Nasution guided the trials of Communist party leaders charged with staging the attempted coup against the government last Oct. 1.

At his trial last week, Communist leader Njono said one reason the Indonesian Communists attempted their coup was that a council of army generals planned to take over the government. The army denied this.

At one time, Nasution 46, was considered Sukarno's heir apparent, but they split over the October coup attempt.

Court Backs Ohio Plan On Apportioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court upheld today an apportionment plan for the Ohio Legislature devised by Gov. James Rhodes and other Republican state officials and approved for this year's election by a lower federal court.

The plan was challenged in an appeal to the high court by James D. Nolan, Democratic candidate for secretary of state who said it disregards the state constitution and long established state policy.

It was upheld by the Supreme Court in a brief order which made no comment. The order stated merely that the judgment of the lower federal court was affirmed. It noted that Justice Abe Fortas took no part.

A key part of the plan was opposed by Democrats and favored by Republicans. This establishes single-member house districts in big counties where elections have been held county-wide.

The U. S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio gave interim approval to the plan last Oct. 27 after ruling earlier that the Ohio Senate was malapportioned.

With election of the 1966 General Assembly due Nov. 8, the court said, further delay would present "the possibility of chaos and of a breakdown in the entire election machinery of the state."

Man, Woman Hurt As Store Ceiling Falls

A man and a woman suffered apparent superficial injuries about noon today when a big section of papberboard ceiling collapsed at the Goodyear Service Store at 653 Walnut St.

Mrs. Patty Campbell of Fisher Park, an employe, suffered cuts about the legs and an arm when she was hit by a falling light fixture as she attempted to flee. An unidentified male worker on a ladder also was struck by the falling material.

Store personnel said the falling section was about 50 feet long and 20 feet wide.

U.S. spokesmen did not mention any losses of aircraft.

The U.S. Marines reactivated Operation Double Eagle, while the U.S. 1st Cavalry (Airmobile Division) continued with Operation White Wing to the west in an effort to trap the Communist regiment. The destroyer was called in to make a Viet Cong retreat to the coast as costly as possible.

In an offshoot of Operation White Wing, the 1st Cavalry reported it had killed 34 Viet Cong 13 miles southwest of Bong Son, headquarters for the Allied coastal campaign 300 miles north of Saigon. Since White Wing began, the cavalrymen report they have killed 1,072 Viet Cong, captured 246 and seized 202 weapons.

The Canberras were strafing Viet Cong positions while South Vietnamese regiments were reported in heavy contact with the Communists. The B57 caught fire on the second pass.

Within seven minutes, an Army helicopter piloted by Maj. Golbert R. Hickenbottom of Sacramento, Calif., and WO Theodore Dexter of Fayetteville, N.C., picked up the two airmen.

The heavy action brought a vow from Premier Nguyen Cao Ky to continue fighting the Viet Cong until they are eradicated from South Viet Nam. He said they are "suffering very heavy losses" and that they could ex-

Demonstrators Protest Humphrey In Philippines

MANILA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived tonight to discuss American Viet Nam policies in the Philippine capital where left-wing demonstrators shouting "Humphrey go home" besieged the U.S. Embassy only a few hours before.

The airport was cordoned off by an unusually large number of security forces.

Humphrey in an airport statement said he would talk to president Ferdinand E. Marcos Tuesday on the Viet Nam situation.

Humphrey arrived from New Zealand as the Philippine Congress began debates on Marcos' proposal to send a 2,000-man combat engineer unit to Viet Nam.

This was the proposal which drove demonstrators into the streets about 1,000 of them marched from the presidential palace to Congress and then to the U.S. Embassy.

The demonstrators, opposing not only Humphrey's visit but U.S. policies in Viet Nam, dispersed about an hour and a half before the vice president's arrival. But they said there would be another demonstration Tuesday.

The demonstrations by students, civil servants and farmers were called to oppose a $4-million bill in the Philippine Congress that would finance the sending of 2,000 combat engineers to Viet Nam.

Earlier today Humphrey conferred with Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake of New Zealand at Parliament House in Wellington. A handful of demonstrators stood silently outside with signs denouncing the Viet Nam war.

During his arrival in Wellington Sunday from Canberra, Australia, Humphrey's car was rushed by a sign-swinging demonstrator who was hurled back by police. In Canberra the previous day about 150 demonstrators called Humphrey a "warmonger."

During the vice president's Australian visit, Prime Minister Harold Holt said his government may soon announce a decision whether to send more Australian soldiers to Viet Nam. There are now 1,500 Australians supporting U.S., South Vietnamese, Korean and New Zealand troops.

Pakistan Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto disagreed with a statement attributed to Hum-

New Telephone Numbers Slated For Midland Area

Midland area residents will receive new telephone numbers when the new central office of the Pennsylvania Bell Telephone Co. is placed in service May 15.

The Midland office, located on Sunrise Hill, is part of a $1.5 million service improvement program in the Beaver Valley. The office will serve Midland, Ohio View, Smiths Ferry and portions of the Rochester exchange area.

Robert Cousin, Bell's Rochester manager, said: "When the building goes into service, there will be some number rearrangements affecting the local customers."

According to Cousin, Midland telephone numbers will continue to be prefixed by "643," but the last four digits will be changed.

Smiths Ferry numbers will be unchanged, but the telephone accounts will be served by the company's Rochester office instead of the East Liverpool office.

Ohioview customers will get completely new telephone numbers starting with the numerals "643."

IN ROCHESTER, approximately 1,200 customers now having 774 and 775 telephone numbers and living in the Tuscarawas and Dutch Ridge Rd. sec-

Moro Due Premier's Post In Italian Move

ROME (AP) — Aldo Moro is expected to end Italy's latest political crisis by accepting the premiership once more.

Moro, a Christian Democrat, has reportedly reached policy agreements with leaders of three other parties expected to join his coalition government.

Those parties—Socialist, Democratic Socialist and Republican—meet today and Tuesday to ratify the agreements.

Indonesia's Defense Chief Seen Ousted

SINGAPORE (AP) — President Sukarno ousted armed forces chief Abdul Haris Nasution as Indonesia's defense minister today, Radio Jakarta reported.

It was Nasution who led the Indonesian army in crushing the Communist uprising last October.

He is known as an implacable foe of communism, long having kept communists out of Indonesia's Cabinet. He became defense minister in 1963 after years of leadership in the army.

Nasution guided the trials of Communist party leaders charged with staging the attempted coup against the government last Oct. 1.

At his trial last week, Communist leader Njono said one reason the Indonesian Communists attempted their coup was that a council of army generals planned to take over the government. The army denied this.

At one time, Nasution 46, was considered Sukarno's heir apparent, but they split over the October coup attempt.

President Declares Defense Pact Unit Doesn't Fill Needs

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle said today any foreign troop elements in France after April 4, 1969 will have to be under French command only. That is the date when members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization can choose to leave NATO.

In the first news conference of his second term in office, the French president declared NATO no longer is adapted to present-day needs. He said France intends to "progressively modify dispositions now in force."

This was taken to mean that he would continue to withdraw French element from NATO but in such a manner as to permit the 14 other NATO allies to adjust to it.

The United States now has about 20,000 troops in France, running supply and other bases. In addition, the French president's statement that foreign troops would have to come under French command threw into question the status of such big Allied installations as NATO headquarters near the Bois de Boulogne in Paris.

De Gaulle told nearly 1,000

Court Backs Ohio Plan On Apportioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court upheld today an apportionment plan for the Ohio Legislature devised by Gov. James Rhodes and other Republican state officials and approved for this year's election by a lower federal court.

The plan was challenged in an appeal to the high court by James D. Nolan, Democratic candidate for secretary of state who said it disregards the state constitution and long established state policy.

It was upheld by the Supreme Court in a brief order which made no comment. The order stated merely that the judgment of the lower federal court was affirmed. It noted that Justice Abe Fortas took no part.

A key part of the plan was opposed by Democrats and favored by Republicans. This establishes single-member house districts in big counties where elections have been held county-wide.

The U. S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio gave interim approval to the plan last Oct. 27 after ruling earlier that the Ohio Senate was malapportioned.

With election of the 1966 General Assembly due Nov. 8, the court said, further delay would present "the possibility of chaos and of a breakdown in the entire election machinery of the state."

Man, Woman Hurt As Store Ceiling Falls

A man and a woman suffered apparent superficial injuries about noon today when a big section of papberboard ceiling collapsed at the Goodyear Service Store at 653 Walnut St.

Mrs. Patty Campbell of Fisher Park, an employe, suffered cuts about the legs and an arm when she was hit by a falling light fixture as she attempted to flee. An unidentified male worker on a ladder also was struck by the falling material.

Store personnel said the falling section was about 50 feet long and 20 feet wide.

1966 Charter Presented

Life Scout Awards Given 3 In Midland 'Explorers'

Three members of Midland Explorer Post 482 were awarded the rank of Life Scout and the post's operating charter for 1966 was presented at a meeting of the group Thursday evening in the Crucible Steel Co. administration building.

During a court of honor, George Huha Jr. of Midland, post advisor, presented life Scout badges to Mike Brozic, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brozic of 601 Penn Ave., John Mosura, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mosura of 508 Penn Ave., and Sal Tonti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan Tonti of 1333 Virginia Ave. The rank of Life Scout is the second highest in scouting.

Mike Gengarella of Ohioville Borough, representing the Ft. McIntosh Boy Scout District, presented the new operating charter to A. L. Breakiron of Ohioville, institutional representative and superintendent of community relations at Crucible's Midland Works.

M. D. Renwick of Industry, post advisory committee chairman, turned over to the post a complete set of manuals on merit badges, a gift of the Crucible Steel Co.

After viewing the film, "Steel and America," presented by Crucible, the group was entertained by "The Sherkers," a teen-age vocal-instrumental group made up of post members.

During 1965, the post attended the winter camporee at Brady's Run Park and the spring camporee at Fort Necessity and participated in the two-day "Scout-O-Rama" show at the Pittsburgh Civic Arena for the Ft. McIntosh District.

The post's special activity for the year was "canoe trails," in which members spent 10 days in the wilderness in Canada. Members attended the fall camporee at Camp Baker and one member attended the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico. Two Midland explorers are members of the district cabinet.

The post's community project was decorating Midland for the Christmas season.

Besides the three Life Scouts, others who earned advancement last year were Terry Chambers, Dennis Haggerty, Gary Lovejoy and Richard Raich, as first class scouts, and Brozic, Mosura and Tonti as star scouts. Members earned a total of 26 merit badges.

New post officers elected recently are: Tonti, president, Mosura, vice president, Lovejoy, secretary, and Cole Young, quartermaster. Special activities chairmen are: Brozic, vocational; Raich, outdoor; Robert Komara, social, and Walter Marciniak, service. Mike McClain is director of activities.

Appointed to the district cabinet were Tonti, Mosura and Raich. The post has 20 members and meets the first and third Thursday in the Crucible administration building conference room.

Burglary Loot Found In Jefferson County

Wellsville police today reported that the loot taken from Craigs' Market at 1603 Main St., Wellsville, sometime Wednesday night has been recovered.

The merchandise was found in Jefferson County near the spot where a car stolen from Wellsville the same night also was discovered.

The car was found Thursday and the merchandise was discovered Friday, police reported. The loot included 34 fifths of wine, four cases of beer, and nine cartons of cigarettes.

Dard Hunter, 82, Dies; Noted Ohio Writer, Historian

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Dard Hunter Sr., prominent author and publisher, died here Sunday of an apparent heart attack. He was 82.

He was stricken at his home, Mountain House, for many years a landmark in the central Ohio area.

Born in 1883 in Steubenville, Hunter became a world renown authority on papermaking and printing.

He established the Dard Hunter Paper Museum in Cambridge Mass., in 1939. The museum was permanently moved to the Institute of Paper Chemistry at Appleton, Wis., in 1954.

Hunter attended Ohio State University and was a graduate of a school in Austria, Graphische Lehr and Versuchs-Anstalt.

Two books he published early in his career, in 1915 and 1917, were said to be the first books in the history of printing which were produced entirely by the efforts of one man.

Hunter moved to Chillicothe in 1919 and continued his one-man operation throughout his career. His limited editions books, mostly on papermaking, were printed on paper he made himself and on his own hand press. He designed, cast and set the type.

Funeral services are scheduled for Wednesday (10:30 a.m.) at the Ware Funeral Home in Chillicothe.

Setting The Record Straight

This week's issue of the neighboring Hancock County Courier appropriately carried comment of the recent Ohio River flood in its editorial column "As We See It."

The following paragraphs were included: "Contrary to news reports on radio, television and in daily newspapers, it is very unlikely that 200 families were evacuated from the downtown area. All business places were open as usual all day Monday, although the lower shelves in stores had been cleared of items. . .

"We hope, for the benefit of relatives and friends who live far away, that future news reports are more accurate. In Ohio, a radio station reported 500 families had been evacuated, which would, if true, be practically all of New Cumberland. Unfortunately, for all of us, when one reporter on a daily newspaper makes an error it is in all three dailies of our area which are owned by the same Ohio chain, and obviously national wire services picking up the news are unaware of the error which does upset friends and relatives of people who live here. . .

"Such exaggerated coverage also bring unneeded sightseeing by people who seem to thrive on other people's misery and discomfort."

Since The Review obviously falls into the category of the three area dailies mentioned, in fairness to the newspaper itself, and its news staff in particular, a few words of rebuttal seem in order.

THE REVIEW'S NEWS columns contained the following relative to the flood situation at New Cumberland:

Monday, Feb. 14 — "A few families moved out of low-lying homes in the New Cumberland area on their own Sunday night and early today. Authorities expected a few more might be evacuated today.

"The household goods are stored in the Community House and the Christian Church under New Cumberland's flood plan. Most families move in with relatives, although a few sleep in the Community House."

Tuesday, Feb. 15 — "The Ohio crested at 1 a.m. today at 38.61 at New Cumberland, according to John D. Herron, Hancock County disaster chairman, about 2½ feet above flood stage. . . .

"All roads are now passable at New Cumberland, Herron said. A few residents who had moved out of their homes as the flood danger mounted earlier either are moving back or getting ready to do so. . .

Wednesday, Feb. 16—"Flood waters are continuing to recede and families in New Cumberland have moved back into vacated homes, John D. Herron, Hancock County disaster chairman, reported today."

The above speaks for itself. In The Review's case it would seem fair to call the coverage factual rather than "exaggerated."

Good Judgment

Congressional immunity or not, Rep. Wayne L. Hays has displayed good judgment in paying the fine assessed against him in a speeding charge at Uhrichsville last week.

The law should be respected at all times, regardless of the position of those involved.

Rep. Hays' considered action in the matter will go far toward erasing whatever questions of misconduct may have arisen in the minds of some when the congressman drove away from the scene in haste at the time of the incident.

Gen. Taylor's Testimony

No one knows more about the whys and wherefores of the war in Viet Nam than Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has been chief presidential adviser on the matter since October 1961, when he consented to make his first on-the-scene report.

Subsequent events have been Gen. Taylor's doing; he never has said he was opposed to them except for complaints about the CIA. On the contrary, he thought in October 1963 that things were going very well and emphasis soon could shift from militarism to economics.

But like everybody else who has guesstimated events in Viet Nam, Gen. Taylor does well to forget his past opinions. At the outset, he thought anyone would be foolish to send U. S. troops to Viet Nam, unless absolutely necessary. Then he thought everything was going fine. The he resigned as ambassador to South Viet Nam last July under circumstances suggesting he'd had his fill of frustrations.

And now, in February 1966, he is rationalizing everything that happened under his protracted aegis as chief presidential adviser by telling inquiring senators it had to be done to teach Communists everywhere a lesson.

ONE DETAIL of Gen. Taylor's testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee provokes second, third and fourth thought's — the passage in which he said France would have hung on after the battle of Dienbienphu, except Paris ran out of zeal and didn't want to fight in South-east Asia any more.

This was said like a true militarist who looks upon war as something soldiers should be permitted to fight without regard to other factors, such as politics, economics, even on rare occasions standards of morality.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur asserted the same concept of his military role in Korea — that the United States should win at any cost — that the Truman administration back in Washington should not interfere with soldiers in the field.

The MacArthur collision with President Truman sparked off a bitter no-win controversy still boiling in the minds of people who thought MacArthur should not have been relieved of his United Nations command in Korea; that the United States should have launched all-out war in Asia and waited no longer for Armageddon.

IT WILL boil over again if and when another commander-in-chief is obliged to settle in Viet Nam for something short of an Armageddon with mainland China — the United States without allies pitting itself against the most densely populated nation on earth.

The Engineers

The Columbiana County chapter of the Society of Professional Engineers is joining in the observance of National Engineers Week today through Saturday.

In proclaiming the week state-wise, Gov. James A. Rhodes of Ohio recognized the profession of engineering "as a creative resource for the continuing progress, technological growth and economic prosperity in the state of Ohio. . ."

The engineering profession never has loomed more important in the scheme of things. We salute the county chapter and similar chapters throughout the nation.

By Government And Autos

One of the more fantastic effects of big government is its impact on auto design. It works like this:

General Services Administration, main purchaser of government supplies, issues its own specifications for the autos it will buy in a forthcoming year. Any manufacturer who failed to meet the specifications in his line would be shut out of bidding for this government business.

A proposed list of specifications for 1968 cars includes dual braking systems; catches to keep the backs of front seats from folding forward in two-door models; defogging devices to clear rear windows; large knobs on gearshift levers and anchorages for shoulder harnesses in back seats.

Government purchases account for no more than 10,000 cars a year, but the government can determine auto design with this small leverage. No manufacturer would want it known that his line could not meet GSA specifications.

Moreover, there is a distinct advantage in being pressured by the government to do certain things that otherwise would have to be done at the risk of incurring a competitive disadvantage. The cost of the GSA-required items can be added to the customer's price, which is the same thing in effect as putting on mandatory accessories.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

If I had to pick out the thing that concerns me most about our experiment in representative democracy, it would be the possibility we may get so bitter that everybody will disagree with everybody else on general principles—a clear case of political incompatibility.

The new commissioner of major league baseball, Gen Whatshisname, is getting a rough ride by people who wanted him to do something supernatural or admit he was a failure. It was an impossible assignment.

When they put me in charge of education, I will let teachers teach, scholars ponder, administrators administer and keep them out of one another's hair—and I mean entirely. Everything that isn't teaching, scholarship and administering will be turned over to other people.

You know the boots some of the chickadees are wearing . . . the ones that come up almost to the knee? What I want to know what the chickadees do when they come in from the outside. Do they take off their boots and go barefoot? Or do they wear boots in the house?

I have realized hundreds of neckties too late that I could have done very well with two ties at a time — a black one and a brown one. When I think of the tough decisions I would have been spared, I am sorry I still don't have the courage of my convictions on this matter.

People still ask what happened to the Twillery cats. It was Twillery dogs that looked upon cats as playthings and wore them out and drove them away with rough tactics. One of the offenders has gone to the big boarding kennel up yonder, but it is doubtful the other one has changed for the better.

My gnawing misgivings about South Viet Nam throb when I read of peasants who never heard of Communism being knocked off like animals in a slaughterhouse because their freedom must be preserved. What?

Not everybody liked what was said here about February fantods, successor to January glooms, forerunners of March moonies. They thought it was too gloomy. That's the idea—to be objective about late-winter gloominess, instead of taking it to heart.

I cannot understand why a country with a civilian secretary of defense and civilian secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force chokes up over civilian boards of review for city police departments? Why shouldn't local armed forces be under civilian control too?

Filter cigarettes now account for 62 per cent of sales, compared with about 50 per cent in 1959.

Makes A Difference Who's Being Defended

Coat-Tail Congress Stirs Warning

By Raymond Moley

The President's proposal for a four-year term for members of the House of Representatives would, if written into the Constitution, have two effects. It would greatly increase any President's domination over the House, and it would lead ultimately to a one-party government. For the plan is to elect all members in a presidential election.

This sort of constitutional amendment fits snugly into L.B.J.'s grand design to impose on this country complete domination by his majority in the Democratic party. Most of his programs already enacted are calculated to cement several powerful minority groups into a monolithic political potential. This in large part would be based upon exacting revenues from all the people and distributing them to bribe-favored minorities.

In the last few years the Senate has been more and more obedient to presidential directives, and its Democratic-liberal majority seems safe for years to come.

THE HOUSE, closer to the electorate because of shorter terms, remains the final hope of the two-party system.

If, as planned, the terms of House members should be lengthened to four years, the majority would almost certainly be swept in with the presidential candidate.

The President's argument for this change is a collection of half-truths.

He said when he asked for the change that it would attract as candidates "the best men in private or public life." But, instead of the best and most independent and courageous people, it would attract those who would seek the advantage of running as supporters of the presidential candidates.

It would attract people who crave a sure thing, with long tenure untroubled by biennial tests at the polls. It would remove members further from the obligation to keep close to and serve the needs of their constituents.

IT MAY BE ANNOYING to some members to maintain close relations with the people at home in their districts. But if popular government means anything, those people are entitled to close contacts with and continuous control of their representatives. Whatever independence member now have from the House leaders and the men in the White House is gained by knowing that they have the confidence of the people back home.

Good representatives give constant attention to their constituents. They do this by answering their mail; by periodic, sometimes weekly letters to their constituents; by seeing people from home who come to Washington, and by presenting their constituents' views to the House—on the floor or in the Congressional Record.

These services are not too great a burden, for members have allowed themsleves fairly lavish personal staffs of assistants. If a congressman is as industrious as he should be, he still has the time to study and vote upon the bills before his committees and the House.

ON THE PRACTICAL SIDE, the Johnson argument falls short. A considerable number of House members are fairly sure of reelection. Many have no opposition. This is especially true of members who have large influence because of seniority.

Finally, there is the need for holding a President and-or a congressional majority to strict accountability. The mid-term election, especially in a year like 1966, is a useful referendum on presidential and congressional policies.

Four years is too long to give a grant of unchecked power to any President, any party or any member. That is especially true in changing times like these. We need not only efficient government, but responsibile government. The makers of the Constitution planned it that way. It should remain that way.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Several time during the snow storms I felt like writing an editorial, because of comments and attitude of many people in our area.

Never before have I heard so much murmuring and hateful and distasteful remarks! I hope that at this late date, persons whom this editorial fits will see themselves.

Those few weeks of snow really revealed what manner of people we are, and the revelation is of shameful undesirable characteristics.

Compared to the times we are living, and the type of tragedies suffered in other parts of the world, our recent experience was but a summer holiday!

The accusations, the criticisms, the thoughtless remarks and actions make me hope the tri - state area never has another big flood, an over-all blackout because of power failure, an earthquake, or a cyclone or tornado.

I THINK OF many people who lose every and all possession in some of these disasters — often including the lives of loved ones. I think of the people who, afterwards try to pick up the pieces, and the mountain - size mess to be cleaned up from the floods, earthquakes, or volcanic eruptions. You wonder why people live in such a place. Why don't they move? There are many people in the world who are not able to choose or change the location of their humble abode.

Sure, the snow brought problems and hardships and much inconveniences. But after a time most of it melted and was returned to the river and most things went back to the old routine as before.

If we had a major catastrophe and there be a need to rebuild and clean up, I wonder if anyone would be left to do it? With such a hateful attitude and selfish thoughts, who would survive?

It seemed everyone wanted their street cleared first, and instantly. This may be an age of many instant products, but that snow didn't want to leave as easily or as quickly as it came. Some men worked night and day without much praise while their phones kept ringing from people sitting by the fire at their own homes watching television, wanting dug out.

Women grumbled because they got their children out of bed, dressed and fed and then learned there was to be no school. Some were angry because school tried to go on — some were angry because some schools stayed closed too long.

From some of these, I think if I had been God, I would have been tempted to send a week or two of rain right on top of all that snow right after we got it. Maybe our people would really know what hard times really are! But He is not that kind of God.

DID YOU EVER stop grumbling long enough to think of the couples who have no children, or parents whose only child has passed into the great beyond? Do you ever think of the people who have no food to prepare or of the world's children who have no warm clothing or a place to call their home? Do you know some are glad to sleep on the floor, or perhaps of the many who never will have a chance to go to school?

Think of the blind who never saw a snowflake, a sunset or a rainbow. When your child comes in wet from the snow with a runny nose, did you ever imagine the longing look of that crippled or bed-ridden child beside the window - inside looking out? Can you see that one whose legs will never run, or perhaps has no hands to throw a snowball?

Would you like to live where complainers are shot at sunup, or complain just once and then mysteriously disappear? Would you like to trade places with someone in Viet Nam, in Russia, in Cuba?

Of course, knowing and thinking about these things cannot change anything for them. But it should help to change us to be thankful for what we have. I think all of us need to sit down now and think about a few things. It might even be quite fitting rather to get down on our knees while we are at it.

What is there this day that you have to be thankful for? If you cannot think of anything, just be thankful for your life and an opportunity to live in this wonderful world God has made for us.

Missing Fragment

An Italian weekly, Gente, has published a story from Vittorio Mussolini about the efforts of the Italian dictator's widow to recover a fragment of brain tissue reportedly removed from his father's mutilated corpse after Italian partisans were through with it in April 1945.

The widow, now 76, says the brain tissue was turned over to an American psychiatrist, identified in the article as Dr. Winfred Overholser, director of St. Elizabeth's Psychiatric Hospital, Washington, D.C. She says she has been trying to recover it for interment with her husband's remains in a crypt at San Casiano.

In the nearly 21 years since the final brutal destruction of the Italian dictator by angry citizens in the neighborhood of Milan, it has been lost sight of that psychiatrists at that time were morbidly curious about both Mussolini and his paranoiac companion in conquest, Adolf Hitler.

If Hitler's remains had been available, it is a good guess his brain tissue would have been examined for signs of defects, too. It was unthinkable while these two dictators were carrying on their maniacal antics that they were sane. It was a shock to human reason that anyone who postured and strutted like Mussolini, who perpetrated unspeakable brutalities, who ordered savage assaults on Ethiopians armed only with spears, who could make the Axis alliance with Hitler could be thought of as rational.

No one seems to know where the Mussolini fragment is, or if it ever was removed. Perhaps the State Department, which is being held responsible for its return, can think of a suitable substitute.

One of the most remarkable natural circulation systems is a tree's, so far as the flow of its vital sap is concerned. A tree has the ability to raise this fluid to a height of a thousand feet.

The wood of the White Spruce tree, because of its resonant qualities, is used for making musical instruments.

Americans spent an estimated $7 billion in 1965 for hard liquor, some $7 billion for beer and about $3 billion for soft drinks.

Grin And Bear It

"Our world peace offensive is beginning to show results! We're getting good responses from almost every country except the ones We're fighting!"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Several time during the snow storms I felt like writing an editorial, because of comments and attitude of many people in our area.

Never before have I heard so much murmuring and hateful and distasteful remarks! I hope that at this late date, persons whom this editorial fits will see themselves.

Those few weeks of snow really revealed what manner of people we are, and the revelation is of shameful undesirable characteristics.

Compared to the times we are living, and the type of tragedies suffered in other parts of the world, our recent experience was but a summer holiday!

The accusations, the criticisms, the thoughtless remarks and actions make me hope the tri - state area never has another big flood, an over-all blackout because of power failure, an earthquake, or a cyclone or tornado.

I THINK OF many people who lose every and all possession in some of these disasters — often including the lives of loved ones. I think of the people who, afterwards try to pick up the pieces, and the mountain - size mess to be cleaned up from the floods, earthquakes, or volcanic eruptions. You wonder why people live in such a place. Why don't they move? There are many people in the world who are not able to choose or change the location of their humble abode.

Sure, the snow brought problems and hardships and much inconveniences. But after a time most of it melted and was returned to the river and most things went back to the old routine as before.

If we had a major catastrophe and there be a need to rebuild and clean up, I wonder if anyone would be left to do it? With such a hateful attitude and selfish thoughts, who would survive?

It seemed everyone wanted their street cleared first, and instantly. This may be an age of many instant products, but that snow didn't want to leave as easily or as quickly as it came. Some men worked night and day without much praise while their phones kept ringing from people sitting by the fire at their own homes watching television, wanting dug out.

Women grumbled because they got their children out of bed, dressed and fed and then learned there was to be no school. Some were angry because school tried to go on — some were angry because some schools stayed closed too long.

From some of these, I think if I had been God, I would have been tempted to send a week or two of rain right on top of all that snow right after we got it. Maybe our people would really know what hard times really are! But He is not that kind of God.

DID YOU EVER stop grumbling long enough to think of the couples who have no children, or parents whose only child has passed into the great beyond? Do you ever think of the people who have no food to prepare or of the world's children who have no warm clothing or a place to call their home? Do you know some are glad to sleep on the floor, or perhaps of the many who never will have a chance to go to school?

Think of the blind who never saw a snowflake, a sunset or a rainbow. When your child comes in wet from the snow with a runny nose, did you ever imagine the longing look of that crippled or bed-ridden child beside the window - inside looking out? Can you see that one whose legs will never run, or perhaps has no hands to throw a snowball?

Would you like to live where complainers are shot at sunup, or complain just once and then mysteriously disappear? Would you like to trade places with someone in Viet Nam, in Russia, in Cuba?

Of course, knowing and thinking about these things cannot change anything for them. But it should help to change us to be thankful for what we have. I think all of us need to sit down now and think about a few things. It might even be quite fitting rather to get down on our knees while we are at it.

What is there this day that you have to be thankful for? If you cannot think of anything, just be thankful for your life and an opportunity to live in this wonderful world God has made for us.

Missing Fragment

An Italian weekly, Gente, has published a story from Vittorio Mussolini about the efforts of the Italian dictator's widow to recover a fragment of brain tissue reportedly removed from his father's mutilated corpse after Italian partisans were through with it in April 1945.

The widow, now 76, says the brain tissue was turned over to an American psychiatrist, identified in the article as Dr. Winfred Overholser, director of St. Elizabeth's Psychiatric Hospital, Washington, D.C. She says she has been trying to recover it for interment with her husband's remains in a crypt at San Casiano.

In the nearly 21 years since the final brutal destruction of the Italian dictator by angry citizens in the neighborhood of Milan, it has been lost sight of that psychiatrists at that time were morbidly curious about both Mussolini and his paranoiac companion in conquest, Adolf Hitler.

If Hitler's remains had been available, it is a good guess his brain tissue would have been examined for signs of defects, too. It was unthinkable while these two dictators were carrying on their maniacal antics that they were sane. It was a shock to human reason that anyone who postured and strutted like Mussolini, who perpetrated unspeakable brutalities, who ordered savage assaults on Ethiopians armed only with spears, who could make the Axis alliance with Hitler could be thought of as rational.

No one seems to know where the Mussolini fragment is, or if it ever was removed. Perhaps the State Department, which is being held responsible for its return, can think of a suitable substitute.

Brown Wins In California Party Dispute

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown survived a walkout of angry delegates and won the California Democratic Council's endorsement, but his victory left scars of intraparty conflict.

Hard feelings, touched off by debate over the Viet Nam war, were evident Sunday as about 200 delegates left the hall when Brown asked the convention of the nation's largest volunteer political group to back his bid for a third term.

The protesters, a minority of the 1,860 present, were objecting to the Democratic governor's support of a successful move to force the resignation of council president Simon Casady, a critic of the Johnson administration's Viet Nam policy.

Most delegates remained, and their cheers of, "We want Brown" echoed through the convention hall.

Brown won their support, but got only 874 votes. Dr. Carleton Goodlett, a San Francisco Negro newspaper publisher who hasn't even declared his candidacy, received 289 votes. Officials said 630 delegates abstained.

The battle showed the unpredictability of the 14-year-old grass roots group, with a membership of more than 30,000.

After denying Casady a vote of confidence Saturday, members replaced him with a San Francisco attorney, Gerald Hill, 36, who favors negotiations in Viet Nam with the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front "under United Nations auspices."

The convention shouted approval of a policy statement favoring such talks.

Polish Cardinal Raps Attacks By Red Press

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski has countered recent attacks by the Communist press against the Catholic Church in Poland.

In a Warsaw sermon Sunday, the cardinal suggested that the Communist attacks could incite the Polish people "to the extreme limit."

"We appeal to those who have power over pens, over paper, over newspaper, over the censorship," Cardinal Wyszynski said.

Talks Slated On Coal Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — President W.A. Boyle of the United Mineworkers of America says negotiations for a new labor contract for the nation's soft coal miners will begin soon and will "continue for the time being without any notice of termination of the existing agreement by either side."

In a statement issued Saturday, Boyle said:

"Negotiators for the United Mineworkers of America are about to begin discussions seeking improvements in the existing national bituminous coal wage agreement. We shall meet with Edward G. Fox, president and other representatives of the Bituminous Coal Operators Association.

"The UMW's proposals to the operators will be based on authority granted the negotiators at the four-day meeting of the 200-man National Policy Committee in union headquarters Feb. 14-17.

"District and local union officials and rank and file coal miners from each of the UMW's bituminous coal districts in the United States participated in the policy meetings.

"They advised me and my associate officers, Vice President George Titler and Secretary-Treasurer John Owens, in detail of their desires for amendments to the existing contract.

"The union will, as it always has, take into consideration all economic factors in attempting to reach an equitable settlement.

"Contract talks are expected to continue for the time being without any notice of termination of the existing agreement by either side."

'Fear Meters' Carried By Russian Spacemen

MOSCOW (AP) — A Russian magazine has revealed that Soviet cosmonauts carry "fear meters" in space.

The weekly magazine Ogonyok said the meter was first tested on Andrian G. Nikolayev and Pavel R. Popovich in 1962. The instrument showed that both cosmonauts were nervous before takeoff, but they were relaxed in orbit.

The magazine said the meter determines "the psychic state of man to a certain degree and registers the slightest nervousness or lack of confidence."

It was dubbed a "fear meter" by the spacemen themselves.

Murder Trial Defense Due

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The state plans to rest its first-degree murder case today against blonde Candace Mossler and her strapping nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, in the 1964 slaying of her aging, multimillionaire husband, Jacques Mossler.

The defense then opens a presentation that is hand-tailored to fit the dramatic courtroom talents of Powers' chief attorney, Percy Foreman, a towering, colorful Texas lawyer. His will be the final plea in the case.

With direct prosecution testimony at an end, Dade County Circuit Judge George Schulz confronted routine midtrial defense motions — for a directed verdict of acquittal, or dismissal of charges for lack of evidence.

However, he is expected to continue the trial, now in its sixth week, with the all-male jury rendering the final judgment. The maximum penalty facing Mrs. Mossler and Powers, if convicted as charged, is death in the electric chair. The state has described them as illicit lovers, driven by lust and greed into a premeditated design to kill Mossler, 69.

Mrs. Mossler entered a local hospital during the weekend for treatment of an old neck injury, aggravated since the trial began Jan. 18 by a fall. She also is subject to migraine headaches, which have interrupted the hearing on occasions.

Nuclear Hoax Brings Scotland Yard Probe

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard's special branch launched a hunt today for a hoaxer who tried to terrify Britain with a false report of a radioactive cloud drifting along the east coast.

The hoax was quickly discovered. The Home Office denounced it as "dangerous and irresponsible . . . with no foundation of truth."

It ordered an investigation by the special branch, which deals with political offenses and espionage.

Lorain Man Dies In Store Holdup

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Raymond Pound helped his wife, Carol, celebrate her 26th birthday at a family party then reported to his part-time job as a clerk. A few hours later he was slain during a robbery.

Police said Pounds, 28, was shot in the back of the head Saturday night with a sawed-off shotgun carried by one of two robbers who escaped with an undetermined amount of money in a holdup at the Convenient Food Mart.

Two men were arrested soon after the slaying and held without charge for questioning. A third man was being sought today. Police said the holdup pair was believed to have had an accomplice who waited in a car.

The men in custody were identified by police inspector Maurive Mumford as Thomas Walton Hill, 25, and Joseph Jones, 26, both of Elyria. Mumford said charges probably would be filed today.

Hunt Pressed For 2 Victims Of Drowning

ALIQUIPPA — Dragging and diving operations were expected to resume today in an effort to recover the bodies of a Center Township youth and a Youngstown man who lost their lives Saturday afternoon when a canoe upset in the Ohio River.

Huey Harper, 20, of Stone Quarry Rd. in Center Township and Edwin (Jinx) Sekinger, 25, of Youngstown were swept to their deaths when their small craft capsized while maneuvering through pilings near the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. loading dock two miles south of here.

Joseph L. Lampich, 19, of McLean St., Aliquippa, who hung to the overturned canoe, was saved by the captain of a nearby towboat and his two sons.

All three were students at Youngstown University. Police Capt. Lawrence Dobosh said the three were staying at the Lampich home for the weekend when they decided to go fishing.

Capt. Dobosh said the canoe struck a moored barge before upsetting. Young Harper grabbed onto the Lampich youth and began shouting for help. Sekinger disappeared almost immediately.

Eugene Bartley of Portsmouth, Ohio, the towboat captain, swung his boat in the direction of the two. Bartley and his sons, Eugene, 16, and Roy Gene, 15, threw a line to Lampich and pulled him onto the towboat. But Harper had lost his grip and disappeared under the surface.

Coast Guardsmen and law enforcement officials dragged the river Saturday in a futile effort to recover the bodies. The hunt was conducted only briefly Sunday because the strong current endangered Scuba divers and the crews of small craft assisting them.

Zupi also announced that registration of new applicants for surplus food will be held March 1-16 at the Surplus Food office on Route 51 at Fallston. This registration will entitle applicants to receive food in April, he said. Applicants registering after March 16 will not be eligible for surplus food until May.

About 25 mortar shells fell into a U.S. artillery battery and battalion headquarters area six miles south of Da Nang, causing what American officials described as light casualties. A patrol sent out to pursue the Viet Cong engaged 15 or 20 guerrillas in a brisk skirmish.

Other Viet Cong shells exploded in a Marine company command post west of Tam Ky, 35 miles south of Da Nang, where U.S. forces launched a multibattalion campaign Saturday to trap the Viet Cong's 1st Regiment in the Phuoc Valley.

Two battalions of South Vietnamese marines joined the Americans Sunday but so far the combined forces have encountered only small enemy patrols and stumbled onto an abandoned tunnel system.

Attack Hurts St. Clair Man

A St. Clair Ave. man was the victim of a mysterious attack by an unknown assailant Saturday night, police reported.

Asa Britton, 53, of Apartment 6, 629 St. Clair Ave. told police he had parked his car in a lot at the rear of the Senate Cafe at 649 St. Clair Ave. and had started to lock it when he was struck.

Britton said he doesn't recall what happened after that until a man found him lying on the ground and took him home. He was unable to tell police whether there was more than one person involved or furnish a description.

The victim said nothing was missing from his wallet or pockets.

After he was taken home, Britton's wife took him to City Hospital, where he was treated and released. The hospital notified police at 11:15 p. m.

Britton was treated at City Hospital for a laceration of the nose and abrasions of the forehead.

All three were students at Youngstown University. Police Capt. Lawrence Dobosh said the three were staying at the Lampich home for the weekend when they decided to go fishing.

Capt. Dobosh said the canoe struck a moored barge before upsetting. Young Harper grabbed onto the Lampich youth and began shouting for help. Sekinger disappeared almost immediately.

Eugene Bartley of Portsmouth, Ohio, the towboat captain, swung his boat in the direction of the two. Bartley and his sons, Eugene, 16, and Roy Gene, 15, threw a line to Lampich and pulled him onto the towboat. But Harper had lost his grip and disappeared under the surface.

Coast Guardsmen and law enforcement officials dragged the river Saturday in a futile effort to recover the bodies. The hunt was conducted only briefly Sunday because the strong current endangered Scuba divers and the crews of small craft assisting them.

Crashes Kill 11 On Ohio's 'Safe Sunday'

Traffic	11
Fires	3

By The Associated Press

The Ohio weekend traffic toll grew through "Traffic Safety Sunday" to at least 11 killed, even as efforts to find the hit-skip motorist involved in one of the 54-hour period's first fatalties continued unavailing.

There were four reported deaths on Sunday, the day Gov. James A. Rhodes had proclaimed should be devoted to church efforts toward alleviating the motoring toll by appealing to drivers' moral sense.

A fire in Pike County near Beaver, Sunday, meanwhile, claimed three lives in one swoop—those of 2-year-old twin girls and their 10-month-old sister.

The fire evidently started from a coal stove while their parents were fixing dinner in a house a few yards away.

The victims were in a frame house the family was using for temporary quarters during renovation of their regular home—the one in which the parents were occupied.

The victims were Melanie and Stephanie Walters, the twins, and Patty, their sister, children of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walters.

Officers in Worthington, north of Columbus, still were trying to trace clues in the hit-skip death early Saturday of Eric Robert Wenden, 17, an Ohio State University professor's son and a bicycling champion killed bicycling.

Steven's father is American sportswear manufacturer Sam Meltzer.

The newlyweds left Sunday night for a Caribbean honeymoon, while their American guests return today to New York aboard the chartered plane.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—Forty - five male guests Sunday night rose in their seats at a special dinner in Parliament House and toasted the sole lady present — Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey.

Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake proposed a special toast, saying that to the best of his knowledge it was Mrs. Humphrey's 43rd birthday. (It was her 54th).

The gentlemen then sang "Happy birthday, dear Muriel" and Vice President Humphrey commented to his wife, "You are spoiled."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson straightened out 7-year-old Courtney McPherson concerning "Lady B," a female beagle puppy he gave her.

The President and Mrs. Johnson stopped to talk with Courtenay following 11 o'clock Sunday services at St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Johnson asked the girl whether the baby beagle is a Republican or a Democrat and Courtenay replied, "I don't know."

Johnson assured her that the puppy is a Democrat.

Courtenay's father is Harry C. McPherson Jr., a presidential assistant slated to become White House special counsel.

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Sister Ann Patrick Ware preached Sunday what is believed to be the first sermon by a Roman Catholic nun from an Episcopal pulpit.

The professor of theology at suburban Webster College spoke to an overflow crowd which included many Roman Catholics, some of them nuns, at St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Ky Changes War Cabinet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, striving for progress on the battlefield and on the political front, reshuffled his war Cabinet today and pledged national elections next year.

The 35-year-old premier and air force commander brushed aside all talk of differences with the United States over the possibility of peace talks with the Communists. He declared his government and the United States were marching forward "with absolutely the identical purpose" to free South Viet Nam from Communist aggression, build a peaceful society and introduce social justice.

In a shakeup growing out of his meetings with President Johnson two weeks ago and the pledge of more American aid at the Honolulu conference, Ky told a news conference:

—Political action teams are being trained to revive political parties and a constitution will be ready by November.

—Popular elections will be held next year.

—A new high court had been established to deal swiftly and efficiently with black marketeers in South Viet Nam's inflationary economy.

Ky, who still pilots his own helicopter to work each day, said he would not be a candidate for office in the elections. "I do not like politics," he said.

The Cabinet changes include the appointment of a deputy minister of foreign affairs to assist in an increasingly big government department entrusted with the job of rounding up support for the Saigon regime.

Most of the other changes will use men already in the government, although some will be added to take on a variety of new tasks. Ky said special commissions had been created to deal with the flood of refugees into government-held areas and the sometimes dissident but anti-Communist Montagnards, primitive tribesmen in the central highlands.

Other commissions were established to run South Viet Nam's overcrowded ports and concentrate on supply bottlenecks.

Of the war, Ky said the aim of his government and the United States was to apply unrelenting pressure on the Communists. "Our policy and that of our allies is to give them no rest at all," he said.

He said the South Vietnamese forces would continue to fight until the Viet Cong were eradicated. He said the Communists are "suffering very heavy losses" and that the government was ready for any new offensive that might be launched by North Vietnamese troops.

newsmen and officials in Elysee Palace: "It is the will of France to dispose of her own fate."

He said this in connection with the announcement on French command of foreign troops on her soil after April 4, 1969.

He declared the United States has been in conflicts such as Korea, Cuba (sic) and Viet Nam, and that such conflicts could be escalated into general conflagration. He said France, of necessity, would be involved because her territory is used for communications facilities, air bases and other military installations.

De Gaulle declared the United States has established a protectorate in Europe under cover of NATO.

Soviet Russia made overseas purchases in 1965 of more than 9.8 million metric tons of wheat from Canada, Argentina and France.

Firemen

Fireman Robert Glendenning of Newell received treatment at the hospital for a nail puncture wound in a finger.

Although the damage was termed extensive, no dollar estimate has been announced, nor has the cause been determined. Firemen are continuing an investigation.

The street department assisted by ashing the street as it froze over with water from the fire hoses.

The firemen expressed appreciation to residents for their cooperation and for providing hot coffee.

When ironing round tables linens, start on outer edge, iron around in a circular direction, finishing up in the center. To store, wrap around a large cardboard roll. Wrap in blue paper and lay on shelves. No yellowed linens this way.

RUINS OF OLD SCHOOL. Flames of undetermined origin destroyed the interior of the former Central School at Chester early Sunday morning. Chester and Newell volunteer firemen battled the flames for several hours. Although the exterior escaped serious damage, firemen said the interior was destroyed. The building was abandoned about three years ago.

Phone

tions of the Rochester exchange will receive new telephone numbers prefixed with the numerals "495."

Cousin also outlined the company's supplemental service improvement project and studies Bell has been conducting over the past year in the Rochester area.

The supplemental program contains a number of features that could benefit local customers. This study is aimed at determining the need for providing toll-free calling between Hookstown, Beaver Falls, Aliquippa, Rochester, Midland and Ohio View. The company's overall program calls for extending toll-free calling between local communities throughout the state for a million and a half customers which will eliminate approximately 30 million toll calls annually.

In explaining the extension of calling, Cousin said that the Bell Company has a statewide rate schedule of local service charges based on the number of customers in the flat-rate calling area. The extension of toll-free calling could mean a nominal increase in monthly service charges. He explained that these increases could range from 20 cents a month for a multi-party line residence customer to $1.80 a month for a private line business or professional customer.

ANOTHER feature of the program is the possible extension of what the company terms the base rate boundary line. Some customers live beyond the base rate area or in locations fairly distant from the center of the telephone exchange.

Private line customers in these areas pay 50 cents additional a month for each quarter mile they live beyond this boundary. If the company's present studies show a sufficient concentration of development in secondary areas to extend the boundary or establish zone areas, these charges would be eliminated for some customers and substantially reduced for others.

In explaining zone areas, Cousin said that the company would establish two-mile-wide bands with a $1 monthly charge for each band to replace the quarter mile charges which would also result in substantial savings.

The study will also determine the need to reduce the number of customers on multi-party lines to four or less. Cousin added that this step would give our rural party-line customers a service that will match the quality of any similar service offered anywhere in the nation.

And He Took It

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) —A passenger who got off a plane at the Salt Lake City airport rushed up to the airline agent and asked "the fastest way to get to town." The agent told him to "go out in front and take a limousine." He did just that — without waiting for the driver. The transportation firm reported the car stolen. A few hours later it was found deserted in downtown Salt Lake City.

Career Chooses Her

NEW YORK (AP) — Her family and friends called on her so often for nursing help that Mrs. Gloria Wolfenson decided to make a career of it. She went back to school 22 years after graduating from high school, and now at 42 has become a registered nurse. The mother of three children was graduated from the Queens College School of Nursing.

phrey that both Pakistan and India consider Communist China the major threat in Asia.

"Communist China does not pose any threat to the Indo-Pakistan subcontinent," Bhutto said in a statement.

He also said the United States could "attach whatever condition they wish to the grant of economic aid," but Pakistan "would not accept any limitation on its independence to order its foreign policy in accordance with the dictates of its own national interest."

Humphrey announced a $50-million loan to Pakistan during a visit there last week.

Humphrey was scheduled to go on to Seoul, South Korea, Tuesday night.

Bronze Head Completed

Sculptor Sees Similarity In Johnson And Lincoln

NEW YORK (AP) — "I was struck with the extraordinary political and facial similarities of President Johnson and Abraham Lincoln," says Leo Cherne, who has just completed a bronze head of Johnson.

The sculptured head, somewhat larger than life — 15 inches on a 7-inch black Belgian marble base—will be presented to Johnson in New York Wednesday night.

The President will be given the sculpture as the recipient of the Freedom Award from Freedom House.

Cherne, 53, a political economist, is director of the Research Institute of America, chairman of the International Rescue Committee, and Executive Committee chairman of Freedom House.

But he still finds time to sculpt and quite well indeed. His works are in the White House and Smithsonian Institution.

He estimates he spent seven months on the Johnson project. He took less than an hour each at three visits to the White House and said he felt guilty about it.

"I was keenly aware that the President is an extremely busy man," Cherne said in an interview. "He is heavily burdened, and the weight of the office he carries is real and evident.

"With anyone else I would not hesitate to take up his time, but with President Johnson I definitely felt guilty," Cherne explained.

At one point, Cherne recalled, the President said: "How long will this take? There is so much I must do."

Cherne, who has sculpted heads of Russian author Boris Pasternak, Albert Schweitzer and Lincoln, said the Johnson assignment had come about after the President had accepted the Lincoln work at the White House.

In his presentation to Johnson, Cherne said, he will tell the awards dinner:

"I hope I have captured something of the weathered flesh and eyes narrowed in their protected encounter with the elements bright and bitter. Perhaps, you will find as I did in the deeply etched grooves of the face, the furrows in the brow some of the lifetime's imprint of care and concern, of hope and frustration, of disappointment contained, high purpose strengthened."

Cherne said Johnson's left profile is "strikingly similar to the man he (Johnson) admired most — Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Of the similarities to Lincoln, Cherne said: "The Johnson I tried to sculpt is the Johnson I see in the frame of Lincoln. Like Lincoln, I believe, Johnson is doomed to less than adequate understanding while in the White House."

Cub Scouts Receive Awards During Blue, Gold Banquet

Various awards were presented during the annual Blue and Gold Banquet of Cub Scout Pack 36 Friday night at Longs Run United Presbyterian Church.

Terry Cross was given the Webelos Award during the presentations made by James Cunningham and Phil Munger. Other awards were:

Bobcat pins: Timmy Honaker, Danny Dray and Robert Morgan; Wolf Award: Carl Lencse; Wolf, gold arrow: Carl Lencse and Terry Hyder; Bear awards: Bryan Falk, Richard Campbell and Chris Cowan; Denner stripes: David Thompson of Den 9 and Jerry O'Hanlon of Den 11, and assistant denner stripes, Mark White of Den 9 and Samuel Shipley of Den 11.

Mrs. Peggy Cross, den mother of Den 9, was presented a gift from the committee and den mothers. Mrs. Cross completed nine years' service with Pack 36 as a den mother, assisting her four sons through cubbing.

Mrs. Setsuko Cunningham was made honorary den mother of Pack 36 and was presented a table centerpiece from the committee. The presentation was by Mrs. Wanda O'Hanlon, den mother.

Phil Munger, district executive, spoke on "Cubbing as a Family." William Rayburn was toastmaster. Introduced by Cunningham, he presented the guests, who included Mrs. Rayburn and their son, Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Locke, leaders of the Webelos Den of East Liverpool.

Mrs. Jane Morgan was chairman of the banquet, with den mothers serving on the committee.

Presentation and retiring of the colors was in charge of Den 3, with Mrs. Louise Lencse as den mother. The Samaritones, a barbershop quartet, provided entertainment.

The newly-appointed committee is comprised of David O'Hanlon, assistant cubmaster; Robert Morgan, chairman; Dr. Stephen Sinclair, and Robert Honaker and Wayne Thompson, planning committee. A planning meeting will be held Tuesday, March 15, with a pack meeting set Friday, March 25.

According to an Agriculture Department report, world agriculture production in 1965 was 1½ per cent greater than in 1964, but the world's population increased at the same time by roughly 2 per cent.

She was arrested Thursday at 4:11 p. m. on E. 6th St. by Patrolman Karl W. Samples.

David Lynn Coleman of 230 Baum St. was fined a total of $15 and costs on charges of crashing a traffic signal at St. Clair Ave. and Broadway and using license plates issued to another vehicle. Coleman was cited at 12:27 a. m. Sunday on St. Clair Ave.

SOUTH WHITLEY, Ind. (AP) —Mrs. Earl Shaffer, 65, went out to the barn to call her husband to supper and found him dead of a heart attack.

Police said Shaffer, 73, and his wife were both victims of heart ailments.

Midland Pair Hurt In Crash

A Midland couple was hospitalized with injuries suffered when their car wrecked on on the Calucita-Smiths Ferry Rd. Sunday at 1:50 a.m., according to the Lisbon State Highway Patrol.

Robert Benson, 46, of Hillcrest Manor was in "fairly good" condition and his wife, Mrs. Betty J. Benson, 34, was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with injuries received when their car struck a tree along the road about a mile west of the Pennsylvania line.

Officers said Mrs. Benson was driving and was headed east when she apparently fell asleep. The car went off the right side of the road and hit the tree.

Mrs. Benson suffered lacerations of the knees, elbow and upper lip and multiple contusions of the face. Her husband received severe lacerations of the ear and scalp.

A city youth was hurt in a crash on Route 170 at Calcutta, three-tenths of a mile east of Route 30, Saturday at 12:15 p. m.

The patrol said the accident involved cars operated by Peter Manning, 19, of Highland Colony and Jay Richard Welch, 16, son of Richard Welch of 626 Garner Ave., and a parked auto owned by Claude M. Tarr of 813 Bank St.

Officers said Manning pulled into the path of Welch, who pulled off the highway and hit the rear of the Tarr car. Manning was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way. Welch was treated at City Hospital for a laceration of the chin.

BUYING THE ENGAGEMENT DIAMOND

Recently I've been talking to several young men inquiring about engagement diamonds. This is naturally a very important occasion for them. I have been most impressed, however, by the manner in which they go about their purchase. Quality is uppermost in their minds, plus answers as to why one diamond is better than another and therfore commands a higher price.

Basic to a discussion of this sort is an explanation of the Four C's of diamond value -- Cutting, Color, Clarity and Carat Weight. Cutting ranks first in desirability since the beauty of a diamond is very much dependent upon how the cut facets reflects light rays. An improperly cut or proportioned stone allows the light rays to seep out the bottom facets of the diamond. For maximum brilliance (and after all, this is what makes the diamond so enchanting) the light rays must bounce back up and through the table of the gem.

The color factor is based upon an absolute lack of color as the ideal. True a bluish tint is very valuable, but the term "Blue White" is so abused that members of the American Gem Society such as ourselves are forbidden to use it in describing diamond color. Any degree of a "yellowish tint lowers the value of the diamond. Since most diamonds have some such "yellowishness" it takes a specially trained jeweler to be able to correctly color grade such stones. Again, this affects the price you pay. Our next column will discuss the remaining two factors.

Bronze Head Completed

Sculptor Sees Similarity In Johnson And Lincoln

NEW YORK (AP) — "I was struck with the extraordinary political and facial similarities of President Johnson and Abraham Lincoln," says Leo Cherne, who has just completed a bronze head of Johnson.

The sculptured head, somewhat larger than life — 15 inches on a 7-inch black Belgian marble base—will be presented to Johnson in New York Wednesday night.

The President will be given the sculpture as the recipient of the Freedom Award from Freedom House.

Cherne, 53, a political economist, is director of the Research Institute of America, chairman of the International Rescue Committee, and Executive Committee chairman of Freedom House.

But he still finds time to sculpt and quite well indeed. His works are in the White House and Smithsonian Institution.

He estimates he spent seven months on the Johnson project. He took less than an hour each at three visits to the White House and said he felt guilty about it.

"I was keenly aware that the President is an extremely busy man," Cherne said in an interview. "He is heavily burdened, and the weight of the office he carries is real and evident.

"With anyone else I would not hesitate to take up his time, but with President Johnson I definitely felt guilty," Cherne explained.

At one point, Cherne recalled, the President said: "How long will this take? There is so much I must do."

Cherne, who has sculpted heads of Russian author Boris Pasternak, Albert Schweitzer and Lincoln, said the Johnson assignment had come about after the President had accepted the Lincoln work at the White House.

In his presentation to Johnson, Cherne said, he will tell the awards dinner:

"I hope I have captured something of the weathered flesh and eyes narrowed in their protected encounter with the elements bright and bitter. Perhaps, you will find as I did in the deeply etched grooves of the face, the furrows in the brow some of the lifetime's imprint of care and concern, of hope and frustration, of disappointment contained, high purpose strengthened."

Cherne said Johnson's left profile is "strikingly similar to the man he (Johnson) admired most — Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Of the similarities to Lincoln, Cherne said: "The Johnson I tried to sculpt is the Johnson I see in the frame of Lincoln. Like Lincoln, I believe, Johnson is doomed to less than adequate understanding while in the White House."

Cub Scouts Receive Awards During Blue, Gold Banquet

Various awards were presented during the annual Blue and Gold Banquet of Cub Scout Pack 36 Friday night at Longs Run United Presbyterian Church.

Terry Cross was given the Webelos Award during the presentations made by James Cunningham and Phil Munger. Other awards were:

Bobcat pins: Timmy Honaker, Danny Dray and Robert Morgan; Wolf Award: Carl Lencse; Wolf, gold arrow: Carl Lencse and Terry Hyder; Bear awards: Bryan Falk, Richard Campbell and Chris Cowan; Denner stripes: David Thompson of Den 9 and Jerry O'Hanlon of Den 11, and assistant denner stripes, Mark White of Den 9 and Samuel Shipley of Den 11.

Mrs. Peggy Cross, den mother of Den 9, was presented a gift from the committee and den mothers. Mrs. Cross completed nine years' service with Pack 36 as a den mother, assisting her four sons through cubbing.

Mrs. Setsuko Cunningham was made honorary den mother of Pack 36 and was presented a table centerpiece from the committee. The presentation was by Mrs. Wanda O'Hanlon, den mother.

Phil Munger, district executive, spoke on "Cubbing as a Family." William Rayburn was toastmaster. Introduced by Cunningham, he presented the guests, who included Mrs. Rayburn and their son, Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Locke, leaders of the Webelos Den of East Liverpool.

Mrs. Jane Morgan was chairman of the banquet, with den mothers serving on the committee.

Presentation and retiring of the colors was in charge of Den 3, with Mrs. Louise Lencse as den mother. The Samaritones, a barbershop quartet, provided entertainment.

The newly-appointed committee is comprised of David O'Hanlon, assistant cubmaster; Robert Morgan, chairman; Dr. Stephen Sinclair, and Robert Honaker and Wayne Thompson, planning committee. A planning meeting will be held Tuesday, March 15, with a pack meeting set Friday, March 25.

According to an Agriculture Department report, world agriculture production in 1965 was 1½ per cent greater than in 1964 but the world's population increased at the same time by roughly 2 per cent.

Rice Harvest Guarded

Allied Drive Puts Pinch In Viet Cong Supply Line

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Big U.S. and Allied military operations are beginning to crimp the Viet Cong supply system for the first time.

The most notable success came during Operation Van Buren, which threw nearly a division of American, Korean and Vietnamese troops into the Tuy Hoa rice bowl. Their job was to make certain the fertile coastal valley's 48,000 tons of rice wound up in government storehouses instead of Viet Cong caches.

In the past, large Viet Cong units moved into the 200-square-mile valley during the harvest and controlled more than half of it. Now, for the first time in several years, Phu Yen Province will export rice instead of importing it.

U.S. military officials said this year three regiments — two Vet Cong and one of North Vietnamese regulars — began converging on the valley 230 miles northeast of Saigon just before the harvest began a month ago.

The American 101st Airborne Brigade, the Korean marine brigade and two battalions of government troops swept the valley clear of the enemy. By the official count more than 500 Communist troops were killed.

"If any army marches on its stomach, old Charlie is in the hurt locker," a U.S. adviser in Phu Yen Province said. Charlie is an American nickname for the Viet Cong.

"The Viet Cong supply system is too good to strangle with what we have now, but taking that much rice away means real trouble for the Viet Cong highland units," said a U.S. source concerned with trying to block supplies to the enemy.

U.S. Marines near Da Nang and U.S. and government troops operating in Binh Tuy Province carried out smaller operations earlier that brought in nearly 10,000 tons of rice.

U.S. troops operating north of Saigon have run into hundreds of Viet Cong rice caches, big and small. Hundreds of tons of rice were destroyed or brought back and placed under government control.

Lat year, the national police seized nearly 3,000 tons of rice at checkpoints set up to control the flow of goods from government to Viet Cong areas. They are doing even better this year.

Although Viet Nam has been fighting a civil war for years, there is no food rationing and no control over the sale of such key items as medicine and light machinery which can be used in Viet Cong arms factories.

The first tentative effort at resources control did not come until October 1964 when the national police were ordered to stop the flow of strategic goods into Viet Cong hands.

At the time there were only about 20,000 police in the country. They were still suffering from bad morale and lost reputation from the days of ex-President Ngo Dinh Deim.

Today the police are 54,000 strong and their ranks are expected to swell to 72,000 by the end of the year. A major share of the new men will be thrown into the resources control program. This type of program aided the British in crushing a Communist guerrilla uprising in Malaya.

The effectiveness of the police has increased in past months, and apparently the Viet Cong are worried. They have increased attacks on police posts and checkpoints, some on the outskirts of Saigon.

Professor Supported In Congress Contest

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — John J. Logue, a political science professor at Villanova University, has received the endorsement of the Delaware County Democratic Committee as the party's congressional candidate in the November election.

Ernawi Falcone, county chairman, said Logue was approved unanimously at a meeting Saturday of the county's 49 borough and township leaders. He said no opposition is expected in the May primary.

Logue, 42, is challenging incumbent Republican G. Robert Watkins for the House seat from Pennsylvania's Seventh Congressional District, which covers Delaware County.

Logue said he would seek to save Philadelphia's suburbs from such threats as down-zoning, urbanization and traffic congestion.

Man Cited On Failure To Lower Headlights

A Beechwood motorist is scheduled for a hearing Thursday before Municipal Judge Samuel Chertoff on a charge that he failed to dim his headlights for approaching traffic.

Kenneth E. Marshall of 172 Center St. was cited by State Highway Patrolman J. T. Garrison Saturday at 6:45 p. m. on the Cannons Mill hill.

The officer said Marshall, traveling south, failed to dim his bright lights although four northbound motorists flashed their lights in an attempt to get him to do so.

Delbert D. Patterson of Hollow Rock Rd., Toronto R. D. 2, is to appear Friday on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. He was cited Thursday at 10:15 p. m.

'Just Like Anyone Else,' Hays Says After Arrest

"I feel I am no better than any other Ohio motorist," Rep. Wayne L. Hays, veteran 18th District congressman declared today as he forfeited a $69 appearance bond in the court of Mayor Robert Heil of Uhrichsville on a charge of speeding 39 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone.

The congressman issued a statement in connection with his arrest Wednesday night while driving to Dover to address an achievement dinner of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A nine-term veteran of the House of Representatives, Hays declared that the U. S. Constitution guarantees immunity to congressmen while they are traveling to and from sessions.

Although he feels that he was immune to the traffic citation at Uhrichsville because he was traveling from a Congressional session and was to return the same night, he said he feels he "is no better than any other resident of Ohio. . ."

Hays also conceded Patrolman Frank Barker's charge that he was traveling 39 miles an hour. However, he said he believed he was in a 35-mile zone. Following the arrest, he said, he learned that it actually was a 25-mile zone.

The congressman's statement explained that he left Washington and flew to Pittsburgh, where he was met by his assistant, Don Gosney of Columbiana. Gosney drove him to Flushing, where he picked up his private car.

The congressman then was proceeding to Dover when he was halted by the policeman in a radar check. He said in his statement it was 6:20 at the time of his arrest and he was due in Dover at 6:30 to speak to the Jaycee dinner.

Dover is in Tuscarawas County, which was added to Hays' district in recent congressional reapportionment. Uhrichsville officials had contended Congressional immunity did not apply to the arrest.

But the mayor said: "We're just treating the situation like anyone else."

Blough Says Curb Needed On Spending

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Congress faces both its most difficult problem and its greatest opportunity in trying to prevent "a further heating up of the economy," says Roger M. Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp.

He also said Saturday that restraint in domestic spending and not wartime types of control are needed to relieve pressures on the nation's economy.

The Viet Nam war might provide "an excuse for the advocacy of controls, but it is not a reason for them." Blough told a Founder's Day Dinner audience at Washington University.

The main cause of current economic pressures is the unusually rapid rate of the nation's economic growth, not the Viet Nam War, Blough said.

Excessive impatience at a time of great economic pressure, he said, "can be disastrous and produce the wage and price explosion which neither guide posts nor controls can permanently prevent."

Such controls, he said, can wipe out a self-adjusting, competitive economic mechanism and also create "an enormous manpower demand" to administer them.

Clay Workers' Union Picks New Committee

A committee to aid sick and distressed members has been appointed by Local 647, United Brick and Clay Workers, William Brewer, president, reported today.

It is comprised of Richard Carter, Walter Anderson, Fred DeLong, Fred McGillian, Floyd Wilson, Truman Waide and Joe Graham.

Brewer presided at a meeting last week at which the committee was named and minutes of union grievance meetings were reviewed. It was announced that a meeting is set Wednesday at 2 p. m. between the company and the hackers at the foremen's office at the Globe Brick Co. plant. It also was announced the local has joined the Globe Federal Credit Union. Bryon Carter is secretary.

The blue whale, largest of all known marine animals, weighs as much as 295,000 pounds and consumes a ton of food each day.

Lafore Plans To Run Against Ex-Opponent

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP) — Former U.S. Rep. John A. Lafore Jr. of Haverford plans a political comeback against a man who knocked him out of Congress six years ago in an upset victory.

The 60-year-old Lafore, in a surprise announcement Saturday, said he would oppose incumbent Rep. Richard S. Schweiker in the Republican primary election in May.

Lafore criticized Schweiker's Congressional record as "too liberal" for Montgomery County, saying he thinks he has a "darn good chance" of beating Schweiker. Schweiker, 40, is seeking his fourth straight term.

Runs Into Truck

St. Clair Mishap Hurts City Youth

A young pedestrian suffered only a brush burn of the leg when he ran into a pickup truck on St. Clair Ave. near Orchard Grove Ave. Saturday afternoon, police were told.

Gene E. Davis, 35, of 608 3rd St., Chester, told police he was driving south in the pickup owned by Argyle Dillon of New Cumberland R. D. 1 when Larry Hall of Woodbine Ave. ran into the side of the truck.

Davis told police he took the boy to his home. Police said the mishap was witnessed by Dr. William Gilmore, 905 Manor Ln., and Mrs. Charles Menough, 1501 Smithfield St.

A mishap at 5:07 p. m. Saturday at Walnut St. and Bradshaw Ave. was blamed on a motorist putting his car into the wrong gear.

—:—

ALBERT T. Hampson, 27, of 208 Jackson St., said he started to put his car into drive gear but accidentally put it into reverse and backed into the halted car of Joseph K. Brophey, 52, of Wellsville R. D. 1.

Police were advised Saturday morning of a mishap at 1 a. m. on Anderson Blvd. near Orchard Grove. Ave. that involved a northbound car driven by Gale W. Laughlin, 67, of Midway Ln. and a parked auto of William H. Young of 1698 Anderson Blvd.

Laughlin told police he struck the parked car after being forced off the road about 1 a. m. by a southbound motorist.

Austin P. McCoy of 823 Sophia St., told police Sunday a fender of his parked auto was damaged by a hit-skip motorist while parked at his home. The damage was discovered at 5:20 p. m.

—:—

MEANWHILE, an accident Friday morning at Union and E. 3rd Sts. in which two parked cars were damaged remains under investigation.

Catherine Siebert of 232 E. 3rd St. and Robert Sell of 415½ Elizabeth St. told police that someone advised them their compacts had been struck by a truck.

The left rear and front end of the Siebert car and the rear of the Sell auto were damaged.

According to the police report, the truck is owned by Pusateri Construction Co. of St. Clair Ave. Ext. and was driven by Richard Brewer, whose address was not listed.

Ohio Seminar Slated On Federal Aid Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. William H. Harsha, R-Ohio, is arranging a seminar for county, city and village officials at Portsmouth, Ohio, March 11 to acquaint them with federal aid programs of possible use in the 7th Congressional District.

Officials of various federal and state agencies will discuss new and expanded federal aid programs and provide kits of information about their operations.

Harsha plans to invite officials in Adams, Brown, Clermont, Fayette, Highland, Pickaway, Pike, Ross and Scoto counties to attend.

New York City has 6,000 miles of streets.

Democratic Foe Urges Board To Certify Johnson

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A Democratic candidate for judge of the 7th District Court of Appeals asked the Mahoning County Board of Elections Saturday to certify his Republican opponent.

Joseph E. O'Neil, a Youngstown attorney, asked the board to approve petitions of presiding Judge Nils Johnson, saying "The people should have a choice. The candidate should not be decided in the court."

O'Neil and Johnson are the only candidates for the post.

Johnson's petitions were ruled invalid because he filed a master petition which did not match the petitions filed for the district's 13 counties.

The judge, in his first term on the 7th District bench, is appealing the board's decision directly to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Mishaps Kill Record 22 In Pennsylvania

By The Associated Press

Accidents killed 22 persons in Pennsylvania over the weekend —a record for 1966.

The deaths this past weekend surpasses the figure of 20, recorded during the second weekend of the year, Jan. 14-16.

Several multiple accidents were included in the latest death toll: an auto crash near Media that took three lives, and two more double-fatality highway accidents.

The highway toll over the weekend was 19, one short of the record 20 set during the Jan. 14-16 period. Besides the boating accident, fire took a life.

East Brady—Mrs. Sadie Murray, 82, perished in a house fire Sunday in this Clarion County community.

Pittsburgh—Edward L. Kramer, about 50, struck and killed by a car Saturday while crossing the Parkway East.

Breezewood—Robert Price, 46, of Rte. 4, Star City, Ark., killed Saturday night when his trailer truck jackknifed on the icy Pennsylvania Turnpike while attempting to avoid another accident.

Corry—Carol J. Johnson, 23, of Clymer, N. Y., killed Saturday in a car-train collision in this Erie County Community.

Shafer Marks Needs Of Equal Education

MCKEESPORT, Pa. (AP) — "Nothing is more meaningful to equality of opportunity than equality of education," says Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer.

Speaking Sunday at a meeting of the McKeesport chapter of the Jewish War Veterans, the candidate for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination said he will "spare no effort, neglect no opportunity to bring us to a time when all people everywhere have an equal chance for equal justice before their neighbors."

". . .education and bigotry," he said, "are by nature incompatible."

Runs Into Truck

St. Clair Mishap Hurts City Youth

A young pedestrian suffered only a brush burn of the leg when he ran into a pickup truck on St. Clair Ave. near Orchard Grove Ave. Saturday afternoon, police were told.

Gene E. Davis, 35, of 608 3rd St., Chester, told police he was driving south in the pickup owned by Argyle Dillon of New Cumberland R. D. 1 when Larry Hall of Woodbine Ave. ran into the side of the truck.

Davis told police he took the boy to his home. Police said the mishap was witnessed by Dr. William Gilmore, 905 Manor Ln., and Mrs. Charles Menough, 1501 Smithfield St.

A mishap at 5:07 p. m. Saturday at Walnut St. and Bradshaw Ave. was blamed on a motorist putting his car into the wrong gear.

—:—

ALBERT T. Hampson, 27, of 208 Jackson St., said he started to put his car into drive gear but accidentally put it into reverse and backed into the halted car of Joseph K. Brophey, 52, of Wellsville R. D. 1.

Police were advised Saturday morning of a mishap at 1 a. m. on Anderson Blvd. near Orchard Grove Ave. that involved a northbound car driven by Gale W. Laughlin, 67, of Midway Ln. and a parked auto of William H. Young of 1698 Anderson Blvd.

Laughlin told police he struck the parked car after being forced off the road about 1 a. m. by a southbound motorist.

Austin P. McCoy of 823 Sophia St., told police Sunday a fender of his parked auto was damaged by a hit-skip motorist while parked at his home. The damage was discovered at 5:20 p. m.

—:—

MEANWHILE, an accident Friday morning at Union and E. 3rd Sts. in which two parked cars were damaged remains under investigation.

Catherine Siebert of 232 E. 3rd St. and Robert Sell of 415½ Elizabeth St. told police that someone advised them their compacts had been struck by a truck.

The left rear and front end of the Siebert car and the rear of the Sell auto were damaged.

According to the police report, the truck is owned by Pusateri Construction Co. of St. Clair Ave. Ext. and was driven by Richard Brewer, whose address was not listed.

Democratic Foe Urges Board To Certify Johnson

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A Democratic candidate for judge of the 7th District Court of Appeals asked the Mahoning County Board of Elections Saturday to certify his Republican opponent.

Joseph E. O'Neil, a Youngstown attorney, asked the board to approve petitions of presiding Judge Nils Johnson, saying "The people should have a choice. The candidate should not be decided in the court."

O'Neil and Johnson are the only candidates for the post.

Johnson's petitions were ruled invalid because he filed a master petition which did not match the petitions filed for the district's 13 counties.

The judge, in his first term on the 7th District bench, is appealing the board's decision directly to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Mishaps Kill Record 22 In Pennsylvania

By The Associated Press

Accidents killed 22 persons in Pennsylvania over the weekend —a record for 1966.

The deaths this past weekend surpasses the figure of 20, recorded during the second weekend of the year, Jan. 14-16.

Several multiple accidents were included in the latest death toll: an auto crash near Media that took three lives, and two more double-fatality highway accidents.

The highway toll over the weekend was 19, one short of the record 20 set during the Jan. 14-16 period. Besides the boating accident, fire took a life.

East Brady—Mrs. Sadie Murray, 82, perished in a house fire Sunday in this Clarion County community.

Pittsburgh—Edward L. Kramer, about 50, struck and killed by a car Saturday while crossing the Parkway East.

Breezewood—Robert Price, 46, of Rte. 4, Star City, Ark., killed Saturday night when his trailer truck jackknifed on the icy Pennsylvania Turnpike while attempting to avoid another accident.

Corry—Carol J. Johnson, 23, of Clymer, N. Y., killed Saturday in a car-train collision in this Erie County Community.

Shafer Marks Needs Of Equal Education

MCKEESPORT, Pa. (AP) — "Nothing is more meaningful to equality of opportunity than equality of education," says Lt. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer.

Speaking Sunday at a meeting of the McKeesport chapter of the Jewish War Veterans, the candidate for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination said he will "spare no effort, neglect no opportunity to bring us to a time when all people everywhere have an equal chance for equal justice before their neighbors."

". . . education and bigotry," he said, "are by nature incompatible."

Wellsville Girl Scout Group Chooses Meeting Delegates

Delegates and alternates to the annual meeting of the Upper Ohio Valley Girl Scout Council in January 1967 were chosen when the Wellsville Neighborhood unit met Thursday night at the home of Miss Jane Morris, of 1733 Lincoln Ave., chairman.

Mrs. Barbara Clark, Miss Joan Brereton and Mrs. Audrey Stevens are the delegates. Mrs. Mary Roach, Mrs. Janet Johnson and Mrs. Betty Figley will be alternates.

Plans for observance of Girl Scout Week March 8-12 were discussed. Mrs. Clark, chairman of the Girl Scout Columbiana County Fair Committee, Miss Morris and Miss B. Irene Cross from the Upper Ohio Valley Council will meet with the County Fair Board Wednesday in Lisbon.

A training session for leaders and helpers will be held March 10 with the Brownie leaders meeting at 6:30 p. m. and Junior heads at 7:30 p. m.

The leaders discussed the strength and needs of the neighborhood. The group asked for names for sustaining membership enrollments and the finance committee of the council will contact these persons or businesses who would donate $10 toward the scouting program. They will receive a Girl Scout membership card, Leader's magazine and "Scout Wise," a newspaper from the Upper Ohio Valley Council.

It was announced that the March issue of "Scout Wise" would contain rules for entering the contest to name the new camp the council has obtained.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Mother: I have never written you a letter before because in the years when I've wanted advice you were in the next room. I'm not writing for advice today, however. I'm writing to tell you that you goofed. And in an area I know something about. Sitters.

You told a young mother, whose good friend helped her out of a tough spot by generously offering the name of her prize sitter, that it was okay to call that sitter for future sitting dates. You said it wasn't necessary to check first with her benefactor to learn if she needed the sitter herself on that particular night.

Sorry, Mother, but it's the unwritten law of the jungle that a sitter provided by a friend in an emergency is not fair game. The woman who booked the emergency sitter for three straight Saturdays dealt her benefactor a low blow. I'm shocked that you condone such tactics.

It's a good thing you no longer need sitters, Mother, because if this is your idea of justice I would not pass on to you the names of my sitters.—YOUR DAUGHTER MARGO.

Dear Margo: It's bad enough when strangers clobber me, but to be hauled up short by my own daughter! Oh, sharper than a serpent's tooth. . . .

Your talk about the jungle makes me shudder. I thought I brought you up in a home. But then maybe the world has changed since I was a young mother and needed sitters.

Perhaps I should have added this thought: If the benefactor makes it plain that the sitter is "just for this once," the befriended mother should, of course, not try to engage her for future dates. If no such stipulation is made, I say a sitter should not be considered private property.

Maybe I should encourage you to hold onto sitters in any way you can, because if you ever get stuck, kiddo, I know who's going to be drafted. Your father!

Bullet Hits Auto, Woman's Unhurt

A Newell wife narrowly escaped being struck by a bullet which hit her son's car as she and her husband were driving north of the city Freeway late Saturday morning, police said.

Patrolman Orin C. Smith said the bullet put a deep dent in the right front door of the 1965 auto driven by John Godwin of Jefferson St. Ext., Newell. If it had hit three inches higher, the bullet might have struck Mrs. Godwin, the officer said.

Patrolman Paul Burson Jr. checked the area in the vicinity of the 1000 block on Dresden Ave. where people reported hearing approximately three shots.

Godwin told police he and his wife were driving north about 11:15 a. m. when someone fired at the car. After stopping the auto, he said he discovered the bullet had ricocheted off the right front door.

Empty Bottles Taken At Store In East End

It was either a terrible error or thieves went to a lot of trouble to steal about 20 cases of empty beer bottles Friday night or early Saturday, police were advised Saturday afternoon.

Victor Ferello of Broadview Circle, operator of Ferello's Supermarket, 549 Mulberry St., told police the empty bottles and cases were taken from an enclosed area between his store and the Community Motors building.

The thieves apparently scaled a high concrete block wall at the rear, since a gate opening on Pennsylvania Ave. was locked, officers said. The burglary, discovered by Bud Miller of Kent St., a friend of Ferello's, occurred between 6 p. m. Friday and 1:30 a. m. Saturday. The report was filed 12 hours later.

Morse Says Viet War Bill Has 'Sleeper'

HARRISBURG (AP) — U.S. Sen. Wayne L. Morse, D-Ore., plans to deliver a series of speeches in the Senate this week against the Johnson Administration's $4.8 billion Viet Nam Military Authorization Bill.

Morse, a consistent critic of the administration's Viet Nam policy, says the bill contains a "sleeper" clause that could escalate the fighting.

"Any senator who votes for the bill votes for an escalation of the war," he said Sunday during a news conference preceding a speech in the forum, an auditorium near the state Capitol here.

Morse, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which held a televised series of hearings last week on the U.S. role in Viet Nam, was here under the auspices of "The Committee on Viet Nam."

This Central Pennsylvania organization is composed of clergymen and laymen.

The Pennsylvania American Legion called last week for a boycott of Morse's appearance. Police estimated the crowd at 1,000.

Morse praised Saturday's statement by U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., in which the brother of the late president suggested that a coalition government in Saigon might be necessary to end the Viet Nam War.

"He (Kennedy) is pointing in the right direction in which we will have to go," Morse said.

The Oregon senator also repeated his intent to try and attach an amendment to the bill calling for revocation of the 1964 congressional resolution that gave support to President Johnson's conduct of the Viet Nam war.

Morse said he feared the present policy would lead to a war with Red China.

Morse said Defense Secretary Robert McNamara admitted that the authorization bill contains a "sleeper" clause.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Mother: I have never written you a letter before because in the years when I've wanted advice you were in the next room. I'm not writing for advice today, however. I'm writing to tell you that you goofed. And in an area I know something about. Sitters.

You told a young mother, whose good friend helped her out of a tough spot by generously offering the name of her prize sitter, that it was okay to call that sitter for future sitting dates. Navy Hero Claimed

Nation's Leaders Honor Adm. Nimitz, Dead At 80

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The late James V. Forrestal, while secretary of the Navy, once asked his chief of naval operations whether an officer convicted by a court-martial ever had risen to flag rank.

"You're looking at one," replied Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, who commanded the most powerful fleet in history during World War II.

As a young officer, the soft-spoken Texan had indeed been found guilty and reprimanded by a Navy court — for running a destroyer aground in Manila Bay.

The admiral, who died Sunday at 80, commanded a thousand ships and two million men during the battles leading to the surrender of Japan. He was the last of the five-star admirals.

Despite holding awesome power, the admiral disliked pomp. On his 75th birthday the Navy staged a big party for him and he remarked:

"Am I looking forward to this? I'm looking forward to the end of it. I feel the same about it as the man who bought himself a small boat: His two happiest days were when he bought it and when he sold it."

The admiral's first experience with a small boat was not pleasant. Born in a landlocked town, he never had seen an ocean until he arrived at Annapolis and became seasick on his first voyage — in a small boat there.

Nimitz, whose career at sea spanned two world wars and the birth of the atomic age, died of what a Navy spokesman called "complications following a stroke" suffered Jan. 3.

With him at his home on Yerba Buena Island Naval Base in San Francsco Bay were his wife, Catherine, one of his daughters and a grandson.

Adm. CHESTER NIMITZ
World War II Leader Dies.

Burial will be Thursday in Golden Gate National Cemetery just south of San Francisco.

In Washington, President Johnson paid tribute to Nimitz as a man of "quiet courage and resolute leadership." The President said Nimitz had earned "the undying gratitude of his countrymen and an enduring chapter in the annals of naval history."

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said: "Admiral Nimitz was one of the most distinguished officers of World War II. The entire naton will always owe him a debt of gratitude for his brilliant service in World War II. He was a good friend whom I admired and respected deeply."

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Folks: Did you ever buy a pair of shoes and have them hurt your heels?

Well, about the nicest thing to do for this is to buy two little rubber powder puffs and just put one in the heel of each shoes. Then put your shoes on. They'll feel like a million dollars.

These little puffs cost only about a nickel apiece in any dime store and you can use them in different pairs of shoes.

This is also good if you have a callous on the back of your heel, because it lifts the foot up a wee bit, and takes the pressure off that sore spot.

You will think the puffs are too big, but don't cut them down until you walk around in the shoes for at least an hour.

As they are a sponge rubber, they "give" beautifully.

What price comfort? For 10 CENTS, WHY NOT HAVE IT?

HELOISE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I enjoy your column daily, and my only kick is that since you've been advising people to use vinegar for so many things, the price has gone up!

MRS. S.

DEAR HELOISE: After broiling chops or steaks, remove the brown liquid from the bottom of the pan and put it in the refrigerator. Then remove the hardened grease from the top, put the liquid in a small jar, and store in the freezer.

This is wonderful to add to stew, stroganoff or gravy, to give color and flavor.

C.P.

DEAR HELOISE: A plastic hair roller, slipped over a sore, bandaged finger will protect the finger from bruises, and will also serve to keep the dressing clean!

JANE B.

DEAR FOLKS: Here's a little dilly I came across recently.

Whenever you buy something through the mail, always write the name of the company, address, etc., on the back of your check stub.

Three times recently I have sent for stuff and did not find the address written on the other side. You can take it from there.

One store sent me a credit slip and didn't even have the name of the company on the credit ticket!

Credit slips are fine, but what good are they if the name of the firm is not on them? You can always refer to the check stub.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: Perhaps the lady who wondered about washing her lace tablecloth, would like to use my method.

I put the tablecloth in a pillowslip, and tie the end of the slip. Both are cleaned at the same time and there is no danger of damaging the cloth.

I also launder cutwork pieces and fine lingerie the same way.

MRS. E. WALLIS.

DEAR HELOISE: When I took my window screens out, I noticed several small holes in them.

I cut small squares of fine nylon net, and stuck them to the screens with rubber cement.

It has rained on them several times since then, and they are still holding well.

L.A.

DEAR HELOISE: I keep track of very small wrenches by slipping a large safety pin or metal shower hook through the socket ends.

This keeps a set together, and makes it much easier to find the size I want.

MISS BURKE.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse

Dear Folks: Did you ever buy a pair of shoes and have them hurt your heels?

Well, about the nicest thing to do for this is to buy two little rubber powder puffs and just put one in the heel of each shoes. Then put your shoes on. They'll feel like a million dollars.

These little puffs cost only about a nickel apiece in any dime store and you can use them in different pairs of shoes.

This is also good if you have a callous on the back of your heel, because it lifts the foot up a wee bit, and takes the pressure off that sore spot.

You will think the puffs are too big, but don't cut them down until you walk around in the shoes for at least an hour.

As they are a sponge rubber, they "give" beautifully.

What price comfort? For 10 CENTS, WHY NOT HAVE IT?

HELOISE.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: I enjoy your column daily, and my only kick is that since you've been advising people to use vinegar for so many things, the price has gone up!

MRS. S.

DEAR HELOISE: After broiling chops or steaks, remove the brown liquid from the bottom of the pan and put it in the refrigerator. Then remove the hardened grease from the top, put the liquid in a small jar, and store in the freezer.

This is wonderful to add to stew, stroganoff or gravy, to give color and flavor.

C.P.

DEAR HELOISE: A plastic hair roller, slipped over a sore, bandaged finger will protect the finger from bruises, and will also serve to keep the dressing clean!

JANE B.

DEAR FOLKS: Here's a little dilly I came across recently:

Whenever you buy something through the mail, always write the name of the company, address, etc., on the back of your check stub.

Three times recently I have sent for stuff and did not find the address written on the other side. You can take it from there.

One store sent me a credit slip and didn't even have the name of the company on the credit ticket!

Credit slips are fine, but what good are they if the name of the firm is not on them? You can always refer to the check stub.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: I keep track of very small wrenches by slipping a large safety pin or metal shower hook through the socket ends.

This keeps a set together, and makes it much easier to find the size I want.

MISS BURKE.

DEAR HELOISE: Perhaps the lady who wondered about washing her lace tablecloth, would like to use my method.

I put the tablecloth in a pillowslip, and tie the end of the slip. Both are cleaned at the same time and there is no danger of damaging the cloth.

I also launder cutwork pieces and fine lingerie the same way.

MRS. E. WALLIS.

DEAR HELOISE: When I took my window screens out, I noticed several small holes in them.

I cut small squares of fine nylon net, and stuck them to the screens with rubber cement.

It has rained on them several times since then, and they are still holding well.

U.S. Slates Test Launch For 'Saturn'

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. — The 22-story Saturn 1B rocket, the most powerful built by the United States, makes its launching debut Wednesday as Project Apollo's first step on the long trip to the moon.

The rocket is to drill an unmanned Apollo ship 300 miles into space and drive it back through the atmosphere at a speed up to 18,000 miles an hour.

The ballistic flight, which will last only 39 minutes, is the first of a long series of Apollo launchings which must precede the landing of American astronauts on the moon by 1970.

Recovery will be attempted when the cabin section, to hold future astronauts, drops by parachute into the South Atlantic 5,300 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy.

West Virginia Lists 7 Dead In Accidents

By The Associated Press

Weekend traffic accidents in West Virginia left at least seven persons dead and boosted the state's 1966 highway toll to 52. That is two less than had died on state highways at this time a year ago.

A two-car collision at Ranson in the Eastern Panhandle Sunday killed three persons. State Police listed the victims as Donald W. Courtney of Charles Town and Abner L. Anderson and William M. Redman, both of Ranson.

The three were riding in a car which collided with a vehicle driven by James Slone of Boyce, Va. Slone was not believed to be seriously hurt.

Separate accidents Saturday accounted for the four other deaths.

Donald Lee Martin, 29, of Front Royal, Va., was killed in a one - car accident on W. Va. 93 near Mt. Storm, Grant County. Martin was returning home from work on the Stony River dam project.

Katerina Ann Spencer, 7, of Pageton, McDowell County, was struck by a car and killed near her home. The mishap occurred on Secondary 102. The driver of the car, Paul Hightower, 24, of Wilco was charged with negligent homicide.

Other Saturday victims included Elmo Bryant, 23, of Taeger, who struck a truck parked along U. S. 52 in McDowell County, and Mrs. Martha Harris Brown, 32, of Bloomingdale, Ohio, who was hit by a car as she walked along W. Va. 67 near Bethany.

Students Ask Ouster Of Duquesne U. Prof

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A group of graduate students at Duquesne University are demanding the resignation of Dr. John J. Pauson as chairman of the philosophy department.

A two-page statement, signed by about 120 students from the departments of philosophy, psychology, and religion and personality, contends that Pauson's leadership has led to strife and discontent. Some of the students picketed on the campus Saturday to demonstrate their complaint.

The students said Pauson's continued chairmanship will result in discontinuing the teaching of phenomenological existentialism, a Duquesne specialty which they say is basic to their graduate studies.

More Hints Offered On Remodeling

Remodeling can make a home a better place in which to work as well as live.

A major objective in modernizing homes today is not only to make them more pleasant for the entire family but to make them more convenient for the busy housewife, according to the New York Chapter American Institute of Architects.

For that reason, architects say, it is not surprising to find that the most favored home improvement project is remodeling of the kitchen, the most used room in the house.

—:—

BATHROOMS follow kitchens on the list of remodeling preferences and added closet and storage space and laundry facilities also are considered important for improvement.

A properly - designed kitchen can save the housewife considerable walking. Everything should be close at hand.

Placement of kitchen cabinets when remodeling should accommodate the lady of the house, for few women can reach above the bottom shelf of an upper cabinet.

Kitchen counters should be at the proper height — low enough so the housewife can work easily at them. And countertops should be of an easy-to-clean material.

Also, there should be at least one-and-a-half feet of counter space on each side of the sink and on at least one side of the range.

Remodeling the kitchen offers an opportunity to add cabinet storage area if the present space is inadequate.

WHEN, remodeling, it is a good idea to check the storage space throughout the house to see if more is required. Lack of proper storage space creates an extra burden for the housewife.

If there is no basement, the home owner should have equivalent utility space above the ground, about eight to 12 per cent of the size of the house. Preferably this should be near the kitchen and used for storing bulky items such as storm windows, trunks, tools.

Is there enough closet space? A family of three or four requires at least 40 square feet of total closet space; 60 feet would be better. Ceiling high closet doors are best, making it possible to see everything inside at a glance.

—:—

THE BATHROOM also can be remodeled to make life easier for the housewife. For example, a wall-hung toilet might be installed. This makes cleaning the floor much simpler.

To keep the floor neat, bathroom scales, often difficult to clean, can be recessed in the wall.

Building shelving into the wall also makes it possible to store towels, wash cloths and a variety of other things in the bathroom, eliminating the need to walk to the linen closet and other areas of the house for these necessities.

The main consideration with the laundry is its location. An excellent area, say architects, is near the bathroom.

This eliminates steps in gathering soiled clothes and putting away clean clothes. It eliminates the need for a clothes hamper and requires little additional plumbing cost. The kitchen and hall also are good places for the laundry.

Steel Expects Active Period

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unexpectedly brisk January-February demand for steel indicates the second quarter may be unusually active, Steel Magazine said today.

The metalworking weekly said that "ordering increasingly reflects completion of inventory adjustments and indicates some revamping of inventory policies —especially by medium sized and small companies."

Some steel buyers who maintained a 30-day stock and then went to a 120-to-150-day supply during the strike hedge last year are cutting back to an average of 60-day supplies rather than reverting to the one - month bracket, Steel said.

The magazine said "The market situation appears to have explosive possibilities" because:

—"Companies are using steel at a faster-than expected rate.

—"They're apprehensive of a tightening in the market.

—"They're concerned about the possibility that the government may step up defense buying and impose controls."

Steel said that despite the increase in demands, "automakers seem intent on carrying normal inventories" and "other large consumers are likely to follow the same line."

Pointing up the tightening market, the magazine said "comparisons of the latest week's order volume with that of the corresponding week in January show gains ranging from 18 to 25 per cent."

The magazine estimated last week's output at 2,590,000 tons, equivalent to an annual rate of 134.7 million tons.

How Do You Look?

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Tips Are Given On Landscaping Project

What does you home look like to your neighbors?

In a recent survey of areas where homes are well landscapped, most residents felt that even one neglected home could spoil a whole neighborhood.

It is not difficult to landscape the entrance to a home, providing the home owner will continuously look at it from the curb and see what needs to be planted, in accordance with his own creative instincts, or what other neighbors have done in the area.

In some areas, a home owner will have a lawn facing the street, perhaps a low hedge along the sidewalk and a driveway to the garage.

IN SUCH an "average planting," one should stand on the sidewalk in the exact middle of the property and face his house.

All large trees should be planted outside the imaginary lines to the corners of the house. This prevents the house from being dwarfed or obscured by large trees.

Smaller trees such as dogwood or crape myrtle may be planted inside such lines, close to the house.

Shrubs usually are planted in curved beds close to the house, with taller shrubs at house corners. Flowering and evergreen shrubs should be intermingled to provide contrast.

Foliages likewise should provide contrast. Taxus, or yew, is the deepest green of all coniferous evergreen shrubs; junipers may have a bluish cast; while arbor vitae may be lighter green or golden.

SOME excellent flowering evergreens for entrance plantings include the rhododendrons and azaleas, although there are many more such as the hollies and pyracanthias and colonneasters.

The southern climates abound in lovely camellias, hibiscus and oleanders.

Beds of annual plants often are used near entrances. These include the pelargoniums, or geraniums, petunias, dwarf snapdragon, marigolds, and numerous other plants.

As with all landscaping, good taste is required. It is recommended by the American Association of Nurserymen that a plan be prepared to make the home entrance most attractive.

Nurserymen, neighbors, landscape architects and others may be consulted if need be. One should strive for color, both in warm weather and winter as well, and low maintenance.

Contract Signed With Glass Firm

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers of North America, AFL-CIO, have a new three-year labor contract that applies to about 8,000 workers at seeven plants.

The contract, according to the company, grants wage increases of 13 to 31 cents an hour plus improvements in the insurance and pension programs. Workers earned a minimum of $2.48 an hour under the old contract.

The new agreement covers workers at plants in Creighton, Pa.; Ford City, Pa.; Cumberland, Md.; Crystal City, Mo.; Mount Vernon, Ohio; Clarksburg, W. Va.; and Henryetta, Okla.

The old contract expired last Wednesday, but was extended while negotiations continued in Jacksonville. The new contract was signed Saturday.

The general aviation industry produced a record 11,852 airplanes last year. The retail value of the planes was $422 million.

More Finishing Tips Offered

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

A reader has a gripe. "Why," he asks, "in your articles about refinishing furniture, do you skip the application of paste wax after the final coat has been put on? I have been finishing furniture for years and am convinced that rubbing with wax helps to preserve the finish."

No argument there. While we occasionally have mentioned the advantages of waxing a surface, we usually skip the step because it falls more in the nature of maintenance of a finish rather than the finish itself.

But we can see how it can be considered part of the finish in some cases. Here are two examples of finishes where wax plays an important part:

Finish No. 1 — Apply penetrating wood sealer to the surface of raw wood or wood from which the old finish has been removed. After about 10 minutes, wipe off the excess sealer with a clean, dry cloth. Don't rub excessively. Just take off the surplus from the surface.

Wait 24 hours, then rub very lightly with a fine grade of steel wool or sandpaper. After dusting off any abrasive particles, apply a second coat of sealer. Again, wait about 10 minutes and wipe off the excess.

Another 24 - hour wait is followed by an application of paste wax. Work the wax into a steel wool pad and rub very, very lightly, being sure to rub in the direction of the grain. Wipe off any excess and clean with a dry cloth. Apply a second coat of paste wax.

This time, using a clean cloth, rub the wax well into the wood. This will produce a patina that can be renewed from time to time with a little polishing.

Finish No. 2 — This finish is very much the same as the first, except that shellac is used instead of penetrating wood sealer. The shellac should be a 50-50 mixture: half shellac, half denatured alcohol.

Use the type of shellac called white, which actually isn't white but what we generally know as clear. After applying an even coat and allowing to dry for at least 12 hours, move into the waxing steps as outlined in Finish No. 1.

In applying either of these finishes, remember that they will make the wood a shade darker than it actually is.

To find out which finish appeals to you most and produces the result you want, take a piece of scrap wood and do half of it with the penetrating sealer method and half with the shellac method. You can then take your pick.

How often should these finishes be rewaxed? It depends on usage.

The wooden arms of a chair, for instance, will require rewaxing more often than a surface which isn't heavily used. A general guide is that normal surfaces should be rewaxed about twice a year.

3 Ohio Papers Cited For Top Typography

CHICAGO (AP)—Three Ohio newspapers received awards for typographical excellence today at the winter meeting of the Inland Daily Press Association.

Steel Expects Active Period

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unexpectedly brisk January-February demand for steel indicates the second quarter may be unusually active, Steel Magazine said today.

The metalworking weekly said that "ordering increasingly reflects completion of inventory adjustments and indicates some revamping of inventory policies —especially by medium sized and small companies."

Some steel buyers who maintained a 30-day stock and then went to a 120-to-150-day supply during the strike hedge last year are cutting back to an average of 60-day supplies rather than reverting to the one - month bracket, Steel said.

The magazine said "The market situation appears to have explosive possibilities" because:

—"Companies are using steel at a faster-than expected rate.

—"They're apprehensive of a tightening in the market.

—"They're concerned about the possibility that the government may step up defense buying and impose controls."

Steel said that despite the increase in demands, "automakers seem intent on carrying normal inventories" and "other large consumers are likely to follow the same line."

Pointing up the tightening market, the magazine said "comparisons of the latest week's order volume with that of the corresponding week in January show gains ranging from 18 to 25 per cent."

The magazine estimated last week's output at 2,590,000 tons, equivalent to an annual rate of 134.7 million tons.

How Do You Look?

Tips Are Given On Landscaping Project

What does you home look like to your neighbors?

In a recent survey of areas where homes are well landscapped, most residents felt that even one neglected home could spoil a whole neighborhood.

It is not difficult to landscape the entrance to a home, providing the home owner will continuously look at it from the curb and see what needs to be planted, in accordance with his own creative instincts, or what other neighbors have done in the area.

In some areas, a home owner will have a lawn facing the street, perhaps a low hedge along the sidewalk and a driveway to the garage.

IN SUCH an "average planting," one should stand on the sidewalk in the exact middle of the property and face his house.

All large trees should be planted outside the imaginary lines to the corners of the house. This prevents the house from being dwarfed or obscured by large trees.

Smaller trees such as dogwood or crape myrtle may be planted inside such lines, close to the house.

Shrubs usually are planted in curved beds close to the house, with taller shrubs at house corners. Flowering and evergreen shrubs should be intermingled to provide contrast.

Foliages likewise should provide contrast. Taxus, or yew, is the deepest green of all coniferous evergreen shrubs; junipers may have a bluish cast; while arbor vitae may be lighter green or golden.

SOME excellent flowering evergreens for entrance plantings include the rhododendrons and azaleas, although there are many more such as the hollies and pyracanthias and colonneasters.

The southern climates abound in lovely camellias, hibiscus and oleanders.

Beds of annual plants often are used near entrances. These include the pelargoniums, or geraniums, petunias, dwarf snapdragon, marigolds, and numerous other plants.

As with all landscaping, good taste is required. It is recommended by the American Association of Nurserymen that a plan be prepared to make the home entrance most attractive.

Nurserymen, neighbors, landscape architects and others may be consulted if need be. One should strive for color, both in warm weather and winter as well, and low maintenance.

Contract Signed With Glass Firm

JACKSONVILLE, Fla (AP)—The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers of North America, AFL-CIO, have a new three-year labor contract that applies to about 8,000 workers at seeven plants.

The contract, according to the company, grants wage increases of 13 to 31 cents an hour plus improvements in the insurance and pension programs. Workers earned a minimum of $2.48 an hour under the old contract.

The new agreement covers workers at plants in Creighton, Pa.; Ford City, Pa.; Cumberland, Md.; Crystal City, Mo.; Mount Vernon, Ohio; Clarksburg, W. Va.; and Henryetta, Okla.

The old contract expired last Wednesday, but was extended while negotiations continued in Jacksonville. The new contract was signed Saturday.

The general aviation industry produced a record 11,852 airplanes last year. The retail value of the planes was $422 million.

The Role Of Wax

More Finishing Tips Offered

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

A reader has a gripe. "Why," he asks, "in your articles about refinishing furniture, do you skip the application of paste wax after the final coat has been put on? I have been finishing furniture for years and am convinced that rubbing with wax helps to preserve the finish."

No argument there. While we occasionally have mentioned the advantages of waxing a surface, we usually skip the step because it falls more in the nature of maintenance of a finish rather than the finish itself.

But we can see how it can be considered part of the finish in some cases. Here are two examples of finishes where wax plays an important part:

Finish No. 1 — Apply penetrating wood sealer to the surface of raw wood or wood from which the old finish has been removed. After about 10 minutes, wipe off the excess sealer with a clean, dry cloth. Don't rub excessively. Just take off the surplus from the surface.

Wait 24 hours, then rub very lightly with a fine grade of steel wool or sandpaper. After dusting off any abrasive particles, apply a second coat of sealer. Again, wait about 10 minutes and wipe off the excess.

Another 24 - hour wait is followed by an application of paste wax. Work the wax into a steel wool pad and rub very, very lightly, being sure to rub in the direction of the grain. Wipe off any excess and clean with a dry cloth. Apply a second coat of paste wax.

This time, using a clean cloth, rub the wax well into the wood. This will produce a patina that can be renewed from time to time with a little polishing.

Finish No. 2 — This finish is very much the same as the first, except that shellac is used instead of penetrating wood sealer. The shellac should be a 50-50 mixture: half shellac, half denatured alcohol.

Use the type of shellac called white, which actually isn't white but what we generally know as clear. After applying an even coat and allowing to dry for at least 12 hours, move into the waxing steps as outlined in Finish No. 1.

In applying either of these finishes, remember that they will make the wood a shade darker than it actually is.

To find out which finish appeals to you most and produces the result you want, take a piece of scrap wood and do half of it with the penetrating sealer method and half with the shellac method. You can then take your pick.

How often should these finishes be rewaxed? It depends on usage.

The wooden arms of a chair, for instance, will require rewaxing more often than a surface which isn't heavily used. A general guide is that normal surfaces should be rewaxed about twice a year.

Chamber's Survey

January Indices Set Uneven Pace

East Liverpool district business and industrial indices showed an uneven trend in January, with six gains offset by an equal number of declines, it was shown today in the monthly summary of conditions issued by the Chamber of Commerce.

January traditionally shows a spotty record on business graphs because of the post-holiday slump. The Chamber's survey showed that six of the lines registered gains last month, compared with the levels they attained at the same time in 1965, while six more declined and one was unchanged.

Payrolls at 11 industrial plants hit $1,390,231 in January, up 3.5 per cent from the $1,342,719 shown at the same time in 1965, but down 21.3 per cent from the $1,766,508 in December. The decline between December and January was heightened by the fact many plants had three paydays in December and only the usual two in January, the Chamber said.

The same 11 plants had 3,925 persons on their payrolls in January, a gain of 13.7 per cent from the 3,451 in the same month of 1965 and a drop of 1.5 per cent from the 3,985 in December.

INBOUND railroad carloadings hit 195 in January, a gain of 16.1 per cent from the 168 in the same month of 1965 and off 8.9 per cent from the 214 registered in December.

Outbound carloadings totaled 465 in January, gaining 252 per cent from the 132 in the same month of 1965 and up 17.7 per cent from December's 395.

District dams locked through 457 tows in January, a decline of 8.2 per cent from the 498 in the comparable month of last year, but up 4.8 per cent from the 436 shown in December.

The January river traffic represented 1,677,350 tons of cargo, virtually unchanged from the 1,675,110 tons in the same month of 1965 and off 3.4 per cent from the 1,735,500 tons in December.

New car registrations in Columbiana County hit 295 in January, down 6.6 per cent from the 316 shown in the first month of 1965 and off 11.9 per cent from the 335 in December.

SALES OF used cars totaled 600 in January, dropping 33.3 per cent from the 900 in the first month of 1965 and down 14.3 per cent from December's 700.

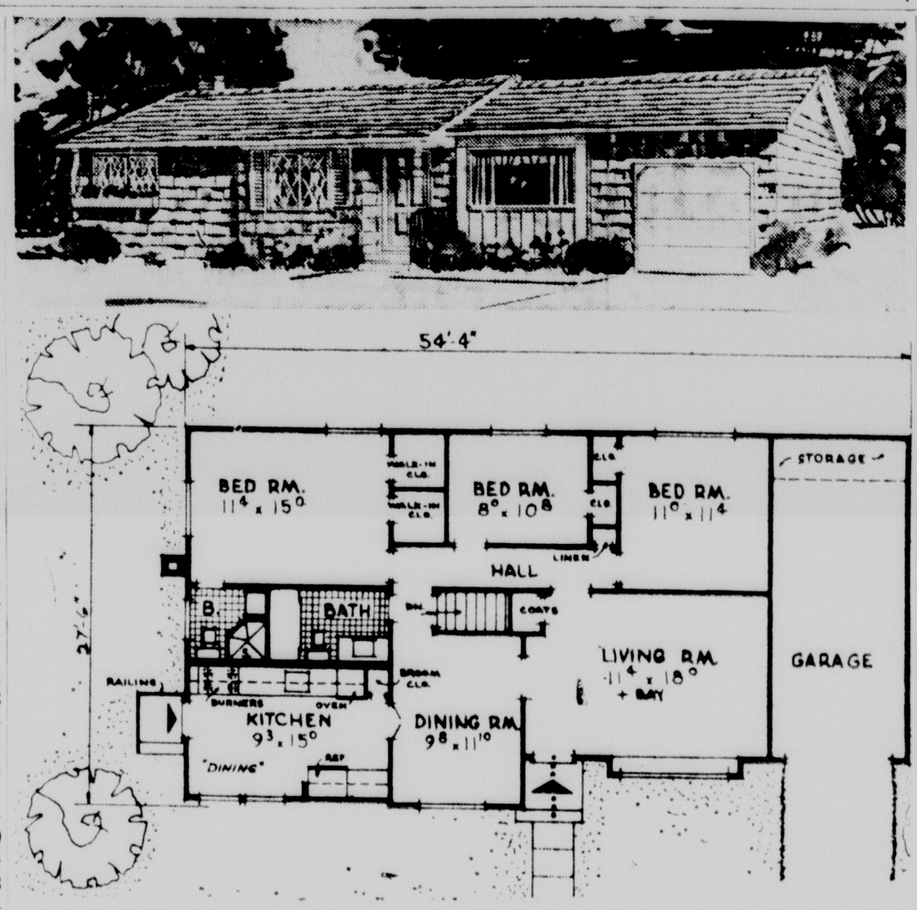
Parking meter receipts totaled $4,676 in January, rising 2.9 per cent from the $4,543 in the first month of 1965, but off 32.3 per cent from the $6,908 registered in December.

The city's relief case load hit 61 in January, off 10.3 per cent from the 68 listed in the first month of 1965 but up 48.8 per cent from December's 41.

Bank clearings hit $4,166,840 in January, off 2.6 per cent from the $4,279,766 shown in the first month of 1965 and down 8.8 per cent from the $4,571,143 in December.

Bank debits totaled $29,222,847 in January, off 5.3 per cent from the $30,852,003 shown in the same month of 1965 and down 15.3 per cent from December's $34,489,033.

Postal receipts totaled $23,058 in January, down 6.7 per cent from the $24,709 shown in the first month of 1965 and off 52 per cent from the $48,043 registered in December.



COMPACT HOME, ideal for building on a street, has all three bedrooms on the back of the house, away from street noises. A small entry leads into the living room, dining room and the hall which affords passage to all rooms without going through others. Closet space is adequate, with built-in broom closet in the kitchen. Architect Herman York, 90-04 161 St., Jamaica, N. Y. 11432 designed Plan HA434Y to utilize 1,137 square feet of floor space.

'Cold Spots'?

If You Have Them, Here's Remedy

Does your home have "cold spots" that your family avoids using as much as possible during the long winter months? Places like the basement, attic or garage?

It's a shame to let such potential living areas go to waste, especially if your family is outgrowing your house. The remedy is simple and practical if you have a hydronic (hot water) heating system: Extend the heating system into the cold areas.

Most boilers have the capacity to handle the extra load, so it's mainly a matter of extending the piping to the additional areas, according to the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau of Chicago.

A heated garage can mean the end of cold morning car start-up problems. It provides an excellent place for children to play. If it has hot and cold running water, it's a perfect year-around mud room where both children and adults can clean up, remove muddy boots and so on before entering the house.

Heated basements make excellent family rooms or play rooms for children. They're real house-savers and mom - savers because the kids can play indoors during bad weather without being underfoot or messing up the rest of the house.

Families that are outgrowing their homes often find that attics can be converted into functional living space — one or more bedrooms, a bathroom, a den, studio or sewing room.

The bathroom usually can be installed directly above the bathroom on the floor below—thereby saving substantially on piping costs. And if the area is heated, it can be used as fully by the family as the kitchen or living room.

Press Club Schedules Transfer Of Quarters

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Press Club announced Sunday it is giving up its present quarters in downtown Pittsburgh and moving about a block away to a glass-walled penthouse atop a 13-story building.

The club's present four-story building and other structures are to be torn down to make way for erection of a 40-story office building by the Oliver Tyrone Corp.

The club will lease its penthouse quarters from Oliver Tyrone, owner of the building where the new quarters are to be located. The move is expected to be made about June 1.

Mrs. Smith appointeed a committee comprised of Mrs. Joleen Cattrell and Mrs. Phyllis Stalder to check and bring up to date the associations by-laws. Two members will be sent to the district conference April 19 at Wooster.

Mrs. Schubert discussed the pre-school clinic March 17 and the spelling contest March 3 and 4 at the Southern Local High School. The room count was won by Mrs. Spring's fifth and sixth grades. Refreshments were served by fifth and sixth grade homeroom mothers. The next meeting will be March 18.

Man, 90, Places Himself In Grave Situation On Job

CHISAGO CITY, Minn. (AP)—Scores of townfolk turned out the other day for George Noreen's 90th birthday party, and the next morning he was in a cemetery.

Noreen, you see, is the town gravedigger, just as his father Frank Noreen was before him. His father lived to be 97.

"I've dug every grave in these cemeteries for the last 40 years, and managed to get out of every one of them alive," says George.

In summertime, he also tends a half-acre garden and eight lawns.

Southern's 96-76 Upset Knocks Tigers Out Of Title

Fields, Goddard Combine For 51; Indians Set School Mark

Southern Local set a new school scoring record and knocked Wellsville out of tie for the Buckeye Border Conference title with a 95-76 upset Saturday night at Southern.

Over 1,000 fans, the biggest crowd ever to see a game at Southern Local, watched the Indians hit a new record of 95 points in gaining their eighth victory in 18 starts as the season ended for both schools.

WHILE Wellsville was losing to Southern, Toronto wrapped up the Conference title with a mere 75-74 victory over Jefferson Union.

Coach Al Girone's Southern five has been the giant-killer in the Buckeye Conference all season by defeating the top three teams with victories over Toronto, Beaver Local and Wellsville.

THE TIGERS, which finished with a winning season of 11-7, were fresh from an upset of their own by nipping Toronto on Friday night, but ran into foul trouble at Southern.

Four of Wellsville's five starters fouled out before the game ended. Dick Murray and Harry Thornton, Coach Jack McDevitt's two top scorers, had been charged with four fouls each before the first half ended.

MURRAY finally fouled out with 2:46 left in the third period with Thornton, Bob Morehead and Mick Comparetta following in the fourth quarter.

Lonnie Fields and Gene Goddard supplied the solid one-two scoring punch by combining for 51 points.

Fields had a brilliant 26-point night and was the big spark in the second half with 19 points while grabbing 18 rebounds. Goddard had one of his best night's of the season with 25 points.

—:—

GIRONE received a fine performance from Tom Hays who came off the bench to score 12 points and pull down 13 rebounds.

Wellsville used a pressing defense early in the game but had to leave it behind when the Tigers ran into foul trouble.

The two teams were tied 20-20 at the end of the first quarter and the contest remained a see-saw battle for two more periods. Southern led at halftime, 46-44, and continued in front 69-65 at the end of three frames.

—:—

COMPARETTA, who emerged as high point man for Wellsville with 23 points, had a red hot hand in the third period to keep Wellsville in the game. He scored 12 points from the field in that quarter.

U.S. Slates Test Launch For 'Saturn'

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. — The 22-story Saturn 1B rocket, the most powerful built by the United States, makes its launching debut Wednesday as Project Apollo's first step on the long trip to the moon.

The rocket is to drill an unmanned Apollo ship 300 miles into space and drive it back through the atmosphere at a speed up to 18,000 miles an hour.

The ballistic flight, which will last only 39 minutes, is the first of a long series of Apollo launchings which must precede the landing of American astronauts on the moon by 1970.

Recovery will be attempted when the cabin section, to hold future astronauts, drops by parachute into the South Atlantic 5,300 miles southeast of Cape Kennedy.

West Virginia Lists 7 Dead In Accidents

By The Associated Press

Weekend traffic accidents in West Virginia left at least seven persons dead and boosted the state's 1966 highway toll to 52. That is two less than had died on state highways at this time a year ago.

A two-car collision at Ranson in the Eastern Panhandle Sunday killed three persons. State Police listed the victims as Donald W. Courtney of Charles Town and Abner L. Anderson and William M. Redman, both of Ranson.

The three were riding in a car which collided with a vehicle driven by James Slone of Boyce, Va. Slone was not believed to be seriously hurt.

Separate accidents Saturday accounted for the four other deaths.

Donald Lee Martin, 29, of Front Royal, Va., was killed in a one - car accident on W. Va. 93 near Mt. Storm, Grant County. Martin was returning home from work on the Stony River dam project.

Katerina Ann Spencer, 7, of Pageton, McDowell County, was struck by a car and killed near her home. The mishap occurred on Secondary 102. The driver of the car, Paul Hightower, 24, of Wilco, was charged with negligent homicide.

Other Saturday victims included Elmo Bryant, 23, of Taeger, who struck a truck parked along U. S. 52 in McDowell County, and Mrs. Martha Harris Brown, 32, of Bloomingdale, Ohio, who was hit by a car as she walked along W. Va. 67 near Bethany.

Students Ask Ouster Of Duquesne U. Prof

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A group of graduate students at Duquesne University are demanding the resignation of Dr. John J. Pauson as chairman of the philosophy department.

A two-page statement, signed by about 120 students from the departments of philosophy, psychology, and religion and personality, contends that Pauson's leadership has led to strife and discontent. Some of the students picketed on the campus Saturday to demonstrate their complaint.

The students said Pauson's continued chairmanship will result in discontinuing the teaching of phenomenological existentialism, a Duquesne specialty which they say is basic to their graduate studies.

More Hints Offered On Remodeling

Remodeling can make a home a better place in which to work as well as live.

A major objective in modernizing homes today is not only to make them more pleasant for the entire family but to make them more convenient for the busy housewife, according to the New York Chapter American Institute of Architects.

For that reason, architects say, it is not surprising to find that the most favored home improvement project is remodeling of the kitchen, the most used room in the house.

BATHROOMS follow kitchens on the list of remodeling preferences and added closet and storage space and laundry facilities also are considered important for improvement.

A properly - designed kitchen can save the housewife considerable walking. Everything should be close at hand.

Placement of kitchen cabinets when remodeling should accommodate the lady of the house, for few women can reach above the bottom shelf of an upper cabinet.

Kitchen counters should be at the proper height — low enough so the housewife can work easily at them. And countertops should be of an easy-to-clean material.

Also, there should be at least one-and-a-half feet of counter space on each side of the sink and on at least one side of the range.

Remodeling the kitchen offers an opportunity to add cabinet storage area if the present space is inadequate.

WHEN, remodeling, it is a good idea to check the storage space throughout the house to see if more is required. Lack of proper storage space creates an extra burden for the housewife.

If there is no basement, the home owner should have equivalent utility space above the ground, about eight to 12 per cent of the size of the house. Preferably this should be near the kitchen and used for storing bulky items such as storm windows, trunks, tools.

Is there enough closet space? A family of three or four requires at least 40 square feet of total closet space; 60 feet would be better. Ceiling high closet doors are best, making it possible to see everything inside at a glance.

—:—

THE BATHROOM also can be remodeled to make life easier for the housewife. For example, a wall-hung toilet might be installed. This makes cleaning the floor much simpler.

To keep the floor neat, bathroom scales, often difficult to clean, can be recessed in the wall.

Building shelving into the wall also makes it possible to store towels, wash cloths and a variety of other things in the bathroom, eliminating the need to walk to the linen closet and other areas of the house for these necessities.

The main consideration with the laundry is its location. An excellent area, say architects, is near the bathroom.

This eliminates steps in gathering soiled clothes and putting away clean clothes. It eliminates the need for a clothes hamper and requires little additional plumbing cost. The kitchen and hall also are good places for the laundry.

Steel Expects Active Period

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unexpectedly brisk January-February demand for steel indicates the second quarter may be unusually active, Steel Magazine said today.

The metalworking weekly said that "ordering increasingly reflects completion of inventory adjustments and indicates some revamping of inventory policies —especially by medium sized and small companies."

Some steel buyers who maintained a 30-day stock and then went to a 120-to-150-day supply during the strike hedge last year are cutting back to an average of 60-day supplies rather than reverting to the one - month bracket, Steel said.

The magazine said "The market situation appears to have explosive possibilities" because:

—"Companies are using steel at a faster-than expected rate.

—"They're apprehensive of a tightening in the market.

—"They're concerned about the possibility that the government may step up defense buying and impose controls."

Steel said that despite the increase in demands, "automakers seem intent on carrying normal inventories" and "other large consumers are likely to follow the same line."

Pointing up the tightening market, the magazine said "comparisons of the latest week's order volume with that of the corresponding week in January show gains ranging from 18 to 25 per cent."

The magazine estimated last week's output at 2,590,000 tons, equivalent to an annual rate of 134.7 million tons.

How Do You Look?

Tips Are Given On Landscaping Project

What does you home look like to your neighbors?

In a recent survey of areas where homes are well landscapped, most residents felt that even one neglected home could spoil a whole neighborhood.

It is not difficult to landscape the entrance to a home, providing the home owner will continuously look at it from the curb and see what needs to be planted, in accordance with his own creative instincts, or what other neighbors have done in the area.

In some areas, a home owner will have a lawn facing the street, perhaps a low hedge along the sidewalk and a driveway to the garage.

IN SUCH an "average planting," one should stand on the sidewalk in the exact middle of the property and face his house.

All large trees should be planted outside the imaginary lines to the corners of the house. This prevents the house from being dwarfed or obscured by large trees.

Smaller trees such as dogwood or crape myrtle may be planted inside such lines, close to the house.

Shrubs usually are planted in curved beds close to the house, with taller shrubs at house corners. Flowering and evergreen shrubs should be intermingled to provide contrast.

Foliages likewise should provide contrast. Taxus, or yew, is the deepest green of all coniferous evergreen shrubs; junipers may have a bluish cast; while arbor vitae may be lighter green or golden.

SOME excellent flowering evergreens for entrance plantings include the rhododendrons and azaleas, although there are many more such as the hollies and pyracanthias and coloneasters.

The southern climates abound in lovely camellias, hibiscus and oleanders.

Beds of annual plants often are used near entrances. These include the pelargoniums, or geraniums, petunias, dwarf snapdragon, marigolds, and numerous other plants.

As with all landscaping, good taste is required. It is recommended by the American Association of Nurserymen that a plan be prepared to make the home entrance most attractive.

Nurserymen, neighbors, landscape architects and others may be consulted if need be. One should strive for color, both in warm weather and winter as well, and low maintenance.

Contract Signed With Glass Firm

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers of North America, AFL-CIO, have a new three-year labor contract that applies to about 8,000 workers at seeven plants.

The contract, according to the company, grants wage increases of 13 to 31 cents an hour plus improvements in the insurance and pension programs. Workers earned a minimum of $2.48 an hour under the old contract.

The new agreement covers workers at plants in Creighton, Pa.; Ford City, Pa.; Cumberland, Md.; Crystal City, Mo.; Mount Vernon, Ohio; Clarksburg, W. Va.; and Henryetta, Okla.

The old contract expired last Wednesday, but was extended while negotiations continued in Jacksonville. The new contract was signed Saturday.

The general aviation industry produced a record 11,852 airplanes last year. The retail value of the planes was $422 million.

The Role Of Wax

More Finishing Tips Offered

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

A reader has a gripe. "Why," he asks, "in your articles about refinishing furniture, do you skip the application of paste wax after the final coat has been put on? I have been finishing furniture for years and am convinced that rubbing with wax helps to preserve the finish."

No argument there. While we occasionally have mentioned the advantages of waxing a surface, we usually skip the step because it falls more in the nature of maintenance of a finish rather than the finish itself.

But we can see how it can be considered part of the finish in some cases. Here are two examples of finishes where wax plays an important part:

Finish No. 1 — Apply penetrating wood sealer to the surface of raw wood or wood from which the old finish has been removed. After about 10 minutes, wipe off the excess sealer with a clean, dry cloth. Don't rub excessively. Just take off the surplus from the surface.

Wait 24 hours, then rub very lightly with a fine grade of steel wool or sandpaper. After dusting off any abrasive particles, apply a second coat of sealer. Again, wait about 10 minutes and wipe off the excess.

Another 24 - hour wait is followed by an application of paste wax. Work the wax into a steel wool pad and rub very, very lightly, being sure to rub in the direction of the grain. Wipe off any excess and clean with a dry cloth. Apply a second coat of paste wax.

This time, using a clean cloth, rub the wax well into the wood. This will produce a patina that can be renewed from time to time with a little polishing.

Finish No. 2 — This finish is very much the same as the first, except that shellac is used instead of penetrating wood sealer. The shellac should be a 50-50 mixture: half shellac, half denatured alcohol.

Use the type of shellac called white, which actually isn't white but what we generally know as clear. After applying an even coat and allowing to dry for at least 12 hours, move into the waxing steps as outlined in Finish No. 1.

In applying either of these finishes, remember that they will make the wood a shade darker than it actually is.

To find out which finish appeals to you most and produces the result you want, take a piece of scrap wood and do half of it with the penetrating sealer method and half with the shellac method. You can then take your pick.

How often should these finishes be rewaxed? It depends on usage.

The wooden arms of a chair, for instance, will require rewaxing more often than a surface which isn't heavily used. A general guide is that normal surfaces should be rewaxed about twice a year.

Oak Glen Picks Up 8th Win, 74-65

Thayer's 29 Leads Way; Riders Next

Tom Thayer followed his record breaking performance last week with a 29-point effort as Oak Glen rolled to a 74-65 victory over visiting Summersville Saturday night.

The victory gave Oak Glen an 8-10 record with games remaining at home with Weirton and Benwood Union.

Thayer, who cracked the school mark last Tuesday with 34 points, might have bettered that record Saturday but fouled out with 2:50 still remaining in the game.

Along with Thayer was Dan Smith, who turned in his best performance of the season, by hitting on eight of 10 shots and wound up with 18 points. The twosome also pulled down 12 rebounds each.

Oak Glen shot 48 per cent hitting 31 of 65 while Summersville hit 41 per cent.

Coach Bob Starkey's team picked up a 20-10 first quarter lead but Summersville bounced back and narrowed the margin to 36-30. Oak Glen held to the lead and took a 56-48 margin into the final period.

Rany Dodrill matched Thayer's output with 29 points. The little guard hit 10 field goals and nine of 12 fouls.

Southern Conference Opens Thursday

Duke And Davidson Champs But Must Win Tourney Now

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's time once again for Duke and Davidson, two of the better college basketball teams in the country, to find out if they once again will be the two best nonchampions in the country.

Davidson has held that status for the past two years while Duke strayed into that area last year.

In the case of these two teams, a nonchampion is one that finishes on top of its league in regular-season play but which loses in the league's postseason tournament, thereby missing out on the championship and a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Davidson, loser of only one of 12 Southern Conference contests this season, opens its bid Thursday for the championship that has eluded it the past two years.

Duke, the nation's second-ranked team, has clinched top seeding in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament with an 11-1 record. The Blue Devils complete their regular schedule this week with league games against Wake Forest and North Carolina.

In the opening Southern Conference game, the Wildcats take on The Citadel, a team they've already beaten twice this season. But based on recent history, that should be no indication of the outcome this time.

Two years ago Davidson lost in the semifinals to Virginia Military 82-81 after stopping VMI twice earlier in the season. Then last year West Virginia, a two-time loser, edged the Wildcats 74-72 in overtime in a semifinal game.

Duke fared only slightly better in the ACC last season, winning two tournament games before losing to North Carolina State 91-85 in the final.

In this year's tournament, March 3-5, the Blue Devils could open against South Carolina, the only conference team to beat them this season.

Both Davidson and Duke won Saturday night, the Wildcats bringing their record to 17-5 with a 77-64 triumph over The Citadel and the Blue Devils making their mark 19-2 by trimming Maryland 74-69.

Unbeaten Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team, won its 21st, edging Mississippi State 73-69, while unbeaten Texas Western, No. 3, nipped Pan American 65-61 for its 20th victory and fifth straight squeaker.

All of the other teams in the Top Ten won with No. 10 Michigan bombing Purdue 128-94 despite Dave Schellhase's 57 points.

Chicago Loyola, No. 4, avenged an earlier defeat by Wichita, downing the Shockers 94-77. Fifth-ranked Vanderbilt remained two games behind Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference with an 89-86 triumph over Florida.

No. 6 Providence knocked off Seton Hall 77-57, seventh-ranked Kansas overwhelmed Oklahoma State 80-47, St. Joseph's, No. 8, outlasted Creighton 96-90 and ninth-ranked Nebraska whipped Missouri 71-53.

In various conferences races, Michigan took a two-game lead in the Big Ten when Wisconsin nipped Michigan State 78-77; Cincinnati tightened its hold on the Missouri Valley lead by downing Tulsa 88-75; Penn held its one-game Ivy lead with an 84-66 victory over Cornell.

Oregon State lost to Southern California 70-60 but still has a two-game lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference, and Utah State kept a one-game lead in the Western Athletic, beating Arizona State 92-76.

1st National Defeats 8th Grade Leader

First National Bank upset Dawson's, 23-20, to throw the Little Potters Eighth Grade League into a tie.

While Dawson's was losing, Eason's won by forfeit to tie for the lead with a 7-2 record.

Nelson's seven points and six by VanMeter paced First National while Lowry tallied eight for Dawson's.

In one other game, McNutt's walloped Potters Bank, 42-13. Kemple's 18 points led McNutt's while Shaffer had six for the losers.

Engle's Aide Paterno New Penn State Coach

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State's new head football coach, Joe Paterno, is on the lookout for another assistant coach.

"The new man I bring in will help with both the pass receivers and quarterbacks," Paterno, 39, who himself gained a reputation as a molder of quarterbacks, said.

"I'll have some of the coaches working with the offense as well as defense as we have a very fluid, talented staff," he added over the weekend.

Thus Paterno, for 16 years the backfield coach at Penn State, found himself in the thick of things within hours after being selected head coach Saturday.

The Brooklyn-born athlete succeeds Charles A. (Rip) Engle who announced his retirement Friday after directing the Nittany Lions for 16 years and establishing himself as one of football's all-time coaching greats.

"I'll make a few changes as far as assistant coaching responsibilities are concerned but I don't expect any problems in the transition," Paterno said.

Paterno will begin blowing the whistle April 9, the start of spring practice.

He said he plans to stick mainly with the "I" formation and varied-T attack.

Looking ahead to the fall, he said "there's a great deal of work ahead, especially in rebuilding the interior line."

He will not have a contract as such. He has tenure as a faculty member in the School of Health and Physical Education. Salary was not mentioned.

In announcing the appointment, Ernest B. McCoy, Penn State's athletic director called Paterno "an excellent teacher."

Engle said, "I am confident he will be one of the fine coaches to emerge from this era of outstanding young men."

Royals Edge Pistons To Trail By 3

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics and Philadelphia 76ers rested Sunday, but the other contender in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division — the Cincinnati Royals — didn't. In fact, the Royals struggled.

Cincinnati, with Oscar Robertson leading the way, outscored Detroit 39-26 in the third quarter and then withstood a fourth-period Piston rally for a 133-129 victory.

The triumph moved the Royals to within three games of the first-place Celtics and to within 2½ games of the 76ers.

The Eastern title scramble continues tonight when the Celtics play at Los Angeles, and the Royals take on the 76ers at Dayton, Ohio.

In the only other Sunday game, St. Louis lost a 20-point lead in the last 10 minutes but edged Baltimore 126-123.

Saturday, Boston nipped Los Angeles 115-111, New York downed Cincinnati 124-113 and Philadelphia defeated San Francisco 123-119.

Chamber's Survey

January Indices Set Uneven Pace

East Liverpool district business and industrial indices showed an uneven trend in January, with six gains offset by an equal number of declines, it was shown today in the monthly summary of conditions issued by the Chamber of Commerce.

January traditionally shows a spotty record on business graphs because of the post-holiday slump. The Chamber's survey showed that six of the lines registered gains last month, compared with the levels they attained at the same time in 1965, while six more declined and one was unchanged.

Payrolls at 11 industrial plants hit $1,390,231 in January, up 3.5 per cent from the $1,342,719 shown at the same time in 1965, but down 21.3 per cent from the $1,766,508 in December. The decline between December and January was heightened by the fact many plants had three paydays in December and only the usual two in January, the Chamber said.

The same 11 plants had 3,925 persons on their payrolls in January, a gain of 13.7 per cent from the 3,451 in the same month of 1965 and a drop of 1.5 per cent from the 3,985 in December.

INBOUND railroad carloadings hit 195 in January, a gain of 16.1 per cent from the 168 in the same month of 1965 and off 8.9 per cent from the 214 registered in December.

Outbound carloadings totaled 465 in January, gaining 252 per cent from the 132 in the same month of 1965 and up 17.7 per cent from December's 395.

District dams locked through 457 tows in January, a decline of 8.2 per cent from the 498 in the comparable month of last year, but up 4.8 per cent from the 436 shown in December.

The January river traffic represented 1,677,350 tons of cargo, virtually unchanged from the 1,675,110 tons in the same month of 1965 and off 3.4 per cent from the 1,735,500 tons in December.

New car registrations in Columbiana County hit 295 in January, down 6.6 per cent from the 316 shown in the first month of 1965 and off 11.9 per cent from the 335 in December.

SALES OF used cars totaled 600 in January, dropping 33.3 per cent from the 900 in the first month of 1965 and down 14.3 per cent from December's 700.

Parking meter receipts totaled $4,676 in January, rising 2.9 per cent from the $4,543 in the first month of 1965, but off 32.3 per cent from the $6,908 registered in December.

The city's relief case load hit 61 in January, off 10.3 per cent from the 68 listed in the first month of 1965 but up 48.8 per cent from December's 41.

Bank clearings hit $4,166,840 in January, off 2.6 per cent from the $4,279,766 shown in the first month of 1965 and down 8.8 per cent from the $4,571,143 in December.

Bank debits totaled $29,222,847 in January, off 5.3 per cent from the $30,852,003 shown in the same month of 1965 and down 15.3 per cent from December's $34,489,033.

Postal receipts totaled $23,058 in January, down 6.7 per cent from the $24,709 shown in the first month of 1965 and off 52 per cent from the $48,043 registered in December.

Mrs. Lillian Frischkorn reported for the ways and means committee. The group decided to sell Easter candy and sweatshirts to raise funds.

Mrs. Smith appointeed a committee comprised of Mrs. Joleen Cattrell and Mrs. Phyllis Stalder to check and bring up to date the associations by-laws. Two members will be sent to the district conference April 19 at Wooster.

Mrs. Schubert discussed the pre-school clinic March 17 and the spelling contest March 3 and 4 at the Southern Local High School. The room count was won by Mrs. Spring's fifth and sixth grades. Refreshments were served by fifth and sixth grade homeroom mothers. The next meeting will be March 18.

'Cold Spots'?

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

If You Have Them, Here's Remedy

Does your home have "cold spots" that your family avoids using as much as possible during the long winter months? Places like the basement, attic or garage?

It's a shame to let such potential living areas go to waste, especially if your family is outgrowing your house. The remedy is simple and practical if you have a hydronic (hot water) heating system: Extend the heating system into the cold areas.

Most boilers have the capacity to handle the extra load, so it's mainly a matter of extending the piping to the additional areas, according to the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau of Chicago.

A heated garage can mean the end of cold morning car start-up problems. It provides an excellent place for children to play. If it has hot and cold running water, it's a perfect year-around mud room where both children and adults can clean up, remove muddy boots and so on before entering the house.

Heated basements make excellent family rooms or play rooms for children. They're real house-savers and mom - savers because the kids can play indoors during bad weather without being underfoot or messing up the rest of the house.

Families that are outgrowing their homes often find that attics can be converted into functional living space — one or more bedrooms, a bathroom, a den, studio or sewing room.

The bathroom usually can be installed directly above the bathroom on the floor below—thereby saving substantially on piping costs. And if the area is heated, it can be used as fully by the family as the kitchen or living room.

Press Club Schedules Transfer Of Quarters

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Press Club announced Sunday it is giving up its present quarters in downtown Pittsburgh and moving about a block away to a glass-walled penthouse atop a 13-story building.

The club's present four-story building and other structures are to be torn down to make way for erection of a 40-story office building by the Oliver Tyrone Corp.

The club will lease its penthouse quarters from Oliver Tyrone, owner of the building where the new quarters are to be located. The move is expected to be made about June 1.

Ex-Umpire Claimed

Workers End 71-Day Walkout At Erie Firm

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Workers at the Lord Manufacturing Co. plant began returning to work today with a new contract and a 12-cent increase in hourly wages, ending a 71-day strike.

Members of Lodge 1211 of the International Association of Machinists voted 221-137 Sunday in favor of the new agreement.

The company and union, in a joint announcement, said the contract provides a wage increase the first year with wage-reopening clauses for the next two years. Fringe benefits and an additional holiday also are included.

Southern's 96-76 Upset Knocks Tigers Out Of Title

Fields, Goddard Combine For 51; Indians Set School Mark

Southern Local set a new school scoring record and knocked Wellsville out of tie for the Buckeye Border Conference title with a 95-76 upset Saturday night at Southern.

Over 1,000 fans, the biggest crowd ever to see a game at Southern Local, watched the Indians hit a new record of 95 points in gaining their eighth victory in 18 starts as the season ended for both schools.

—:—

WHILE Wellsville was losing to Southern, Toronto wrapped up the Conference title with a mere 75-74 victory over Jefferson Union.

Coach Al Girone's Southern five has been the giant-killer in the Buckeye Conference all season by defeating the top three teams with victories over Toronto, Beaver Local and Wellsville.

THE TIGERS, which finished with a winning season of 11-7, were fresh from an upset of their own by nipping Toronto on Friday night, but ran into foul trouble at Southern.

Four of Wellsville's five starters fouled out before the game ended. Dick Murray and Harry Thornton, Coach Jack McDevitt's two top scorers, had been charged with four fouls each before the first half ended.

MURRAY finally fouled out with 2:46 left in the third period with Thornton, Bob Morehead and Mick Comparetta following in the fourth quarter.

Lonnie Fields and Gene Goddard supplied the solid one-two scoring punch by combining for 51 points.

Fields had a brilliant 26-point night and was the big spark in the second half with 19 points while grabbing 18 rebounds. Goddard had one of his best night's of the season with 25 points.

—:—

GIRONE received a fine performance from Tom Hays who came off the bench to score 12 points and pull down 13 rebounds.

Wellsville used a pressing defense early in the game but had to leave it behind when the Tigers ran into foul trouble.

The two teams were tied 20-20 at the end of the first quarter and the contest remained a see-saw battle for two more periods. Southern led at halftime, 46-44, and continued in front 69-65 at the end of three frames.

—:—

COMPARETTA, who emerged as high point man for Wellsville with 23 points, had a red hot hand in the third period to keep Wellsville in the game. He scored 12 points from the field in that quarter.

German Turns In Mile Of Season Under 4 Minutes

BERLIN (AP) — The first sub four-minute mile indoors in two seasons belongs to Jurgen May of East Germany.

May ran the mile in 3:58.2 Sunday night and in so doing set an unofficial indoor record of 3:41.9 for 1,500 meters, the East German News Agency said.

ADN also said May's mile time was an unofficial European record. The world indoor mark of 3:56.4 is held by Tom O'Hara of Chicago, who also ran the last sub four-minute mile, in 1964. The best previous indoor effort this season was a 4:00.2 by Oregon's Jim Grelle.

Antelope fawns develop much faster than deer fawns. When only a day or two old, they can run at speeds up to 25 miles per hour for short distances.

Oak Glen Picks Up 8th Win, 74-65

Thayer's 29 Leads Way; Riders Next

Tom Thayer followed his record breaking performance last week with a 29-point effort as Oak Glen rolled to a 74-65 victory over visiting Summersville Saturday night.

The victory gave Oak Glen an 8-10 record with games remaining at home with Weirton and Benwood Union.

Thayer, who cracked the school mark last Tuesday with 34 points, might have bettered that record Saturday but fouled out with 2:50 still remaining in the game.

Along with Thayer was Dan Smith, who turned in his best performance of the season, by hitting on eight of 10 shots and wound up with 18 points. The twosome also pulled down 12 rebounds each.

Oak Glen shot 48 per cent hitting 31 of 65 while Summersville hit 41 per cent.

Coach Bob Starkey's team picked up a 20-10 first quarter lead but Summersville bounced back and narrowed the margin to 36-30. Oak Glen held to the lead and took a 56-48 margin into the final period.

Rany Dodrill matched Thayer's output with 29 points. The little guard hit 10 field goals and nine of 12 fouls.

Duke And Davidson Champs But Must Win Tourney Now

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's time once again for Duke and Davidson, two of the better college basketball teams in the country, to find out if they once again will be the two best nonchampions in the country.

Davidson has held that status for the past two years while Duke strayed into that area last year.

In the case of these two teams, a nonchampion is one that finishes on top of its league in regular-season play but which loses in the league's postseason tournament, thereby missing out on the championship and a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Davidson, loser of only one of 12 Southern Conference contests this season, opens its bid Thursday for the championship that has eluded it the past two years.

Duke, the nation's second-ranked team, has clinched top seeding in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament with an 11-1 record. The Blue Devils complete their regular schedule this week with league games against Wake Forest and North Carolina.

In the opening Southern Conference game, the Wildcats take on The Citadel, a team they've already beaten twice this season. But based on recent history, that should be no indication of the outcome this time.

Two years ago Davidson lost in the semifinals to Virginia Military 82-81 after stopping VMI twice earlier in the season. Then last year West Virginia, a two-time loser, edged the Wildcats 74-72 in overtime in a semifinal game.

Duke fared only slightly better in the ACC last season, winning two tournament games before losing to North Carolina State 91-85 in the final.

In this year's tournament, March 3-5, the Blue Devils could open against South Carolina, the only conference team to beat them this season.

Both Davidson and Duke won Saturday night, the Wildcats bringing their record to 17-5 with a 77-64 triumph over The Citadel and the Blue Devils making their mark 19-2 by trimming Maryland 74-69.

Unbeaten Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team, won its 21st, edging Mississippi State 73-69, while unbeaten Texas Western, No. 3, nipped Pan American 65-61 for its 20th victory and fifth straight squeaker.

All of the other teams in the Top Ten won with No. 10 Michigan bombing Purdue 128-94 despite Dave Schellhase's 57 points.

Chicago Loyola, No. 4, avenged an earlier defeat by Wichita, downing the Shockers 94-77. Fifth-ranked Vanderbilt remained two games behind Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference with an 89-86 triumph over Florida.

No. 6 Providence knocked off Seton Hall 77-57, seventh-ranked Kansas overwhelmed Oklahoma State 80-47, St. Joseph's, No. 8, outlasted Creighton 96-90 and ninth-ranked Nebraska whipped Missouri 71-53.

In various conferences races, Michigan took a two-game lead in the Big Ten when Wisconsin nipped Michigan State 78-77; Cincinnati tightened its hold on the Missouri Valley lead by downing Tulsa 88-75; Penn held its one-game Ivy lead with an 84-66 victory over Cornell.

Oregon State lost to Southern California 70-60 but still has a two-game lead in the Pacific Athletic Conference, and Utah State kept a one-game lead in the Western Athletic, beating Arizona State 92-76.

1st National Defeats 8th Grade Leader

First National Bank upset Dawson's, 23-20, to throw the Little Potters Eighth Grade League into a tie.

While Dawson's was losing, Eason's won by forfeit to tie for the lead with a 7-2 record.

Nelson's seven points and six by VanMeter paced First National while Lowry tallied eight for Dawson's.

In one other game, McNutt's walloped Potters Bank, 42-13. Kemple's 18 points led McNutt's while Shaffer had six for the losers.

Engle's Aide Paterno New Penn State Coach

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Penn State's new head football coach, Joe Paterno, is on the lookout for another assistant coach.

"The new man I bring in will help with both the pass receivers and quarterbacks," Paterno, 39, who himself gained a reputation as a molder of quarterbacks, said.

"I'll have some of the coaches working with the offense as well as defense as we have a very fluid, talented staff," he added over the weekend.

Thus Paterno, for 16 years the backfield coach at Penn State, found himself in the thick of things within hours after being selected head coach Saturday.

The Brooklyn-born athlete succeeds Charles A. (Rip) Engle who announced his retiretirement Friday after directing the Nittany Lions for 16 years and establishing himself as one of football's all-time coaching greats.

"I'll make a few changes as far as assistant coaching responsibilities are concerned but I don't expect any problems in the transition," Paterno said.

Paterno will begin blowing the whistle April 9, the start of spring practice.

He said he plans to stick mainly with the "I" formation and varied-T attack.

Looking ahead to the fall, he said "there's a great deal of work ahead, especially in rebuilding the interior line."

He will not have a contract as such. He has tenure as a faculty member in the School of Health and Physical Education. Salary was not mentioned.

In announcing the appointment, Ernest B. McCoy, Penn State's athletic director called Paterno "an excellent teacher."

Engle said, "I am confident he will be one of the fine coaches to emerge from this era of outstanding young men."

Royals Edge Pistons To Trail By 3

By The Associated Press

The Boston Celtics and Philadelphia 76ers rested Sunday, but the other contender in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division — the Cincinnati Royals — didn't. In fact, the Royals struggled.

Cincinnati, with Oscar Robertson leading the way, outscored Detroit 39-26 in the third quarter and then withstood a fourth-period Piston rally for a 133-129 victory.

The triumph moved the Royals to within three games of the first-place Celtics and to within 2½ games of the 76ers.

The Eastern title scramble continues tonight when the Celtics play at Los Angeles, and the Royals take on the 76ers at Dayton, Ohio.

In the only other Sunday game, St. Louis lost a 20-point lead in the last 10 minutes but edged Baltimore 126-123.

Saturday, Boston nipped Los Angeles 115-111, New York downed Cincinnati 124-113 and Philadelphia defeated San Francisco 123-119.

Police Tops Ogilvie's In 6-7 Cage Loop

The Police Department handed league leading Ogilvie's a 16-6 setback to feature the Little Potters 6-7 Grade League.

Second place Bright's handed Coca - Cola a 38-7 defeat with Rogers' 10 points leading the way. Mercer and Seevers added eight points for the winners.

Wolfe's four points paced the Coke five.

In one other game, Hune Co. handed American Vit. its tenth straight setback, 25-7. Standley's 11 points paced the winners and Jackson had five for the losers.

PETER GRAVES
In His 'Courtmartial' Uniform

It looks as if Jim Arness' little 6-foot-2 brother, Peter Graves, is about to get as rich as he is. The TV series Pete made more than a year ago in England ("Courtmartial"), with Brad Dillman, become part of ABC's "third season" on April 8.

Hal Humphrey

Pete also has a pilot with Richard Egan for another TV series called "Stranded," and it may be on TV next season. To make it a full house with aces over, Pete joined Dean Martin last week to begin shooting the feature movie, "Texas Across the River," and the week before that he got his first film directing credit by directing big brother's "Gunsmoke" show.

-:-

PETE HASN'T been exactly idle the past 10 or 12 years but, like most actors, he's still struggling for that "big break." Pete thought he had it a couple of times but, like mercury, it slid off into nowhere.

"In 1953," Pete recalls, "I got all of those raves for my roles as the German spy in "Stalag 17' and thought I was on my way with Billy Wilder. He produced it at Paramount, but I haven't worked for him or Paramount since."

In fact, had it not been for his success in "Stalag 17," Pete might have been "Gunsmoke's" Mat Dillon. When the search was on in 1955 for a tall, rugged-looking hombre to be the marshal in the TV version of "Gunsmoke," Pete's agent suggested him, but someone at CBS thought he didn't look "American enough," after remembering Pete from "Stalag."

-:-

"I THINK what burned me most, after hearing my brother Jim got the job, was that he'd just done a movie called 'The Thing' and played a vegetable in it," Pete recalls, with a laugh which had been a long time in coming.

Some of Pete's disappointment was eased soon when he was offered the ranch - owner role in "Fury," a TV series starring a horse and a boy. It ran for five years and filled up Pete's pockets with residuals, but when you're trying to steal acting honors from a horse and - or a boy, you know you have to be a loser.

"Fury did absolutely nothing for my career, and Jim was no consolation during that time," reports Pete. "I'd go over to his house and he'd begin telling me his troubles, yeah, him with a million dollars a week!"

PETE TOOK ON another series, "Whiplash," which was produced by a British TV firm. It was about an American who'd migrated to Australia, which is exactly what Pete and his family had to do, as the 34 episodes filmed near Sydney.

The "Courtmartial" series, all 26 episodes of which were filmed in England and currently are on the air there and in other counties, came about after a two - part "Suspense Theater" drama ("The Case Against Sergeant Ryker") with Pete and Brad Dillman as prosecutor and defense advocate and Lee Marvin as the accused.

"Universal liked the idea for a series, and I think it's turned into a good one. If it goes, we'll be making more of them. Somebody asked me the other day what will happen if my other series, 'Stranded,' sells. My answer was, 'What's wrong with being in two series simultaneously?' I'm ready," says Pete, expansively.

WITH A FIRMER grip on that brass ring, Pete admits now that there were times when "it ate a big hole in my guts" to see big brother Jim Arness (Graves is another family name which Pete adopted because Jim got to Hollywood two years ahead of him) making it big while Pete was following "Fury" around.

"Sure, I'd say to myself, 'How can this big, untalented lunk be a star?' I knew better, of course, and I knew Jim had his problems—one of them being that a Western hero is the worst kind of type-casting to overcome and prove you really can act, which Jim can, if he ever gets a chance to prove it."

This fact used to eat a fair-sized hole in Jim's guts, too, until he became so rich being the marshal of Dodge City, he decided that proving he could act was being kind of silly. He'd rather take the weekend off for some surfing in Hawaii, which he does quite often now.

"I've decided you have to be fatalistic in this business, if you want to keep your sanity," says Pete, after thinking over his past 15 years in Hollywood.

Past Due No Longer

CLAY, Ky. (AP) — W. W. Johnson, who has had a grocery store here for about half a century, finds that some folks take a little longer than others to pay their bills. On Jan. 1, 1925, one of his customers gave him a note to cover a charge account for $75 which he was unable to pay at that time. Soon after, the customer left the state with no forwarding address. Recently, Johnson received a check in the mail to cover the bill in full.

Gremlins Crept In

YARMOUTH, Maine (AP) — Mrs. Minnie Knapp got a new electric floor for her garage, operated by remote control from her car. Her next door neighbor, Dr. Nat Barker, decided he too would like such a modern convenience for his garage. But somehow in the installation, gremlins crept in. When Mrs. Knapp signaled to open her door, up popped the door of Dr. Barker's garage. When the doctor pushed his button, his neighbor's garage flew open. The garbled signals were corrected.

Another Height-Weight-Age Chart

Two decades ago Height-Weight-Age Charts were discontinued. Those charts were misleading in that they encouraged a man to say, "For my age I'm entitled to weigh. . . ."

Ida Jean Kain

Since the average adult tends to gain, naturally this increase is revealed in weight statistics. But this doesn't make it normal, for concomitant statistics show that when pounds mount with birthdays, the number of birthdays is cut short.

-:-

CURRENT charts are based on averages, and these statistics show the weight picture as it is today. But averages do not necessarily represent standard weights for health. On the basis of mortality figures, the weight that is normal for your height and build at age 29 is your desirable weight from then on.

The height-weight data from American College Health Association studies were used for analyzing the height - weight relationship of young adults. These measurements were made on about 160,000 students entering 103 colleges in 34 states.

The resultant chart was computed by Dorothy W. Sargent at the time she was a nutrition specialist with the Human Nutrition Research Division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Here is the chart for young men:

Hgt. (in.)	Underwgt.	Slender	Normal	Stocky	Overweight	Obese
			YOUNG MEN
63	111	121	131	141	151	170
64	114	124	134	144	155	175
65	117	128	138	148	159	179
66	120	131	141	152	163	184
67	123	134	145	156	167	188
68	126	138	149	160	171	193
69	130	141	152	164	175	198
70	133	145	156	168	180	203
71	136	148	160	172	184	209
72	140	152	165	177	189	214
73	143	156	169	181	194	219
74	147	160	173	186	199	225
75	151	164	178	191	204	231
76	155	168	182	196	209	237
77	159	173	187	201	215	243
78	163	177	192	206	220	249

Height is without shoes, weight without clothing. The middle column, headed "normal," represents the average. Using this norm as a standard:

Slender is 7.5 to 15 per cent less than normal. Underweight is 15 per cent or more below normal. Stocky is 7.5 to 15 per cent more than the normal. Overweight is from 15 to 30 per cent above normal. Obese is 30 per cent or more above normal.

Although not representative for prevailing weight-for-height of an older population group, these values for young men 21 to 29 years of age may be used for estimating the desirable weight for men of average skeletal frame, muscle mass and fatty tissue.

Why not consult with your own doctor as to the weight that is best for you? Clip and save this chart if you wish to keep it for reference.

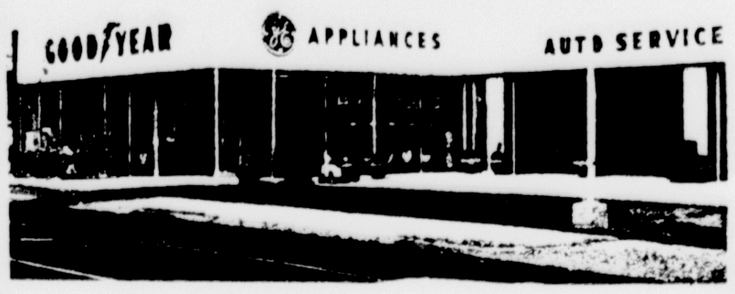
REMODELING CLEAN-UP



653 WALNUT ST.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO

OPEN till 8:30 P. M. ALL WEEK

We call this "REMODELING CLEAN-UP" because we want to be perfectly honest about it. Although most of the items on sale are PERFECT QUALITY, a few have minor scratches or dents and most are slightly soiled from the dust of the carpenters, electricians and painters. To get down to brass tacks: every floor sample of General Electric Television Sets, Appliances and Stereos that is soiled must be replaced with new merchandise before the formal grand opening of our new store. Jim Hoschar, the manager, has slashed prices right and left. Every item . . . . . sacrificed at a fraction of its actual value. So come early . . . . . we've listed only a few of the many values you'll find . . . . no money down . . . . . open till 8:30 every night this week.

PETER GRAVES
In His 'Courtmartial' Uniform

It looks as if Jim Arness' little 6-foot-2 brother, Peter Graves, is about to get as rich as he is. The TV series Pete made more than a year ago in England ("Courtmartial"), with Brad Dillman, become part of ABC's "third season" on April 8.

Hal Humphrey

Pete also has a pilot with Richard Egan for another TV series called "Stranded," and it may be on TV next season. To make it a full house with aces over, Pete joined Dean Martin last week to begin shooting the feature movie, "Texas Across the River," and the week before that he got his first film directing credit by directing big brother's "Gunsmoke" show.

-:-

PETE HASN'T been exactly idle the past 10 or 12 years but, like most actors, he's still struggling for that "big break." Pete thought he had it a couple of times but, like mercury, it slid off into nowhere.

"In 1953," Pete recalls, "I got all of those raves for my roles as the German spy in "Stalag 17' and thought I was on my way with Billy Wilder. He produced it at Paramount, but I haven't worked for him or Paramount since."

In fact, had it not been for his success in "Stalag 17," Pete might have been "Gunsmoke's" Mat Dillon. When the search was on in 1955 for a tall, rugged-looking hombre to be the marshal in the TV version of "Gunsmoke," Pete's agent suggested him, but someone at CBS thought he didn't look "American enough," after remembering Pete from "Stalag."

-:-

"I THINK what burned me most, after hearing my brother Jim got the job, was that he'd just done a movie called 'The Thing' and played a vegetable in it," Pete recalls, with a laugh which had been a long time in coming.

Some of Pete's disappointment was eased soon when he was offered the ranch - owner role in "Fury," a TV series starring a horse and a boy. It ran for five years and filled up Pete's pockets with residuals, but when you're trying to steal acting honors from a horse and - or a boy, you know you have to be a loser.

"Fury did absolutely nothing for my career, and Jim was no consolation during that time," reports Pete. "I'd go over to his house and he'd begin telling me his troubles, yeah, him with a million dollars a week!"

PETE TOOK ON another series, "Whiplash," which was produced by a British TV firm. It was about an American who'd migrated to Australia, which is exactly what Pete and his family had to do, as the 34 episodes filmed near Sydney.

The "Courtmartial" series, all 26 episodes of which were filmed in England and currently are on the air there and in other counties, came about after a two - part "Suspense Theater" drama ("The Case Against Sergeant Ryker") with Pete and Brad Dillman as prosecutor and defense advocate and Lee Marvin as the accused.

"Universal liked the idea for a series, and I think it's turned into a good one. If it goes, we'll be making more of them. Somebody asked me the other day what will happen if my other series, 'Stranded,' sells. My answer was, 'What's wrong with being in two series simultaneously?' I'm ready," says Pete, expansively.

WITH A FIRMER grip on that brass ring, Pete admits now that there were times when "it ate a big hole in my guts" to see big brother Jim Arness (Graves is another family name which Pete adopted because Jim got to Hollywood two years ahead of him) making it big while Pete was following "Fury" around.

"Sure, I'd say to myself, 'How can this big, untalented lunk be a star?' I knew better, of course, and I knew Jim had his problems—one of them being that a Western hero is the worst kind of type-casting to overcome and prove you really can act, which Jim can, if he ever gets a chance to prove it."

This fact used to eat a fair-sized hole in Jim's guts, too, until he became so rich being the marshal of Dodge City, he decided that proving he could act was being kind of silly. He'd rather take the weekend off for some surfing in Hawaii, which he does quite often now.

"I've decided you have to be fatalistic in this business, if you want to keep your sanity," says Pete, after thinking over his past 15 years in Hollywood.

Past Due No Longer

CLAY, Ky. (AP) — W. W. Johnson, who has had a grocery store here for about half a century, finds that some folks take a little longer than others to pay their bills. On Jan. 1, 1925, one of his customers gave him a note to cover a charge account for $75 which he was unable to pay at that time. Soon after, the customer left the state with no forwarding address. Recently, Johnson received a check in the mail to cover the bill in full.

Gremlins Crept In

YARMOUTH, Maine (AP) — Mrs. Minnie Knapp got a new electric floor for her garage, operated by remote control from her car. Her next door neighbor, Dr. Nat Barker, decided he too would like such a modern convenience for his garage. But somehow in the installation, gremlins crept in. When Mrs. Knapp signaled to open her door, up popped the door of Dr. Barker's garage. When the doctor pushed his button, his neighbor's garage flew open. The garbled signals were corrected.

Another Height-Weight-Age Chart

Two decades ago Height-Weight-Age Charts were discontinued. Those charts were misleading in that they encouraged a man to say, For my age I'm entitled to weigh. . . ."

Ida Jean Kain

Since the average adult tends to gain, naturally this increase is revealed in weight statistics. But this doesn't make it normal, for concomitant statistics show that when pounds mount with birthdays, the number of birthdays is cut short.

-:-

CURRENT charts are based on averages, and these statistics show the weight picture as it is today. But averages do not necessarily represent standard weights for health. On the basis of mortality figures, the weight that is normal for your height and build at age 29 is your desirable weight from then on.

The height-weight data from American College Health Association studies were used for analyzing the height - weight relationship of young adults. These measurements were made on about 160,000 students entering 103 colleges in 34 states.

The resultant chart was computed by Dorothy W. Sargent at the time she was a nutrition specialist with the Human Nutrition Research Division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Here is the chart for young men:

Hgt. (in.)	Under-wgt.	Slen-der	Nor-mal	Stoc-ky	Over-Weight	Obese
			YOUNG MEN
63	111	121	131	141	151	170
64	114	124	134	144	155	175
65	117	128	138	148	159	179
66	120	131	141	152	163	184
67	123	134	145	156	167	188
68	126	138	149	160	171	193
69	130	141	152	164	175	198
70	133	145	156	168	180	203
71	136	148	160	172	184	209
72	140	152	165	177	189	214
73	143	156	169	181	194	219
74	147	160	173	186	199	225
75	151	164	178	191	204	231
76	155	168	182	196	209	237
77	159	173	187	201	215	243
78	163	177	192	206	220	249

Height is without shoes, weight without clothing. The middle column, headed "normal," represents the average. Using this norm as a standard:

Slender is 7.5 to 15 per cent less than normal. Underweight is 15 per cent or more below normal. Stocky is 7.5 to 15 per cent more than the normal. Overweight is from 15 to 30 per cent above normal. Obese is 30 per cent or more above normal.

Although not representative for prevailing weight-for-height of an older population group, these values for young men 21 to 29 years of age may be used for estimating the desirable weight for men of average skeletal frame, muscle mass and fatty tissue.

Why not consult with your own doctor as to the weight that is best for you? Clip and save this chart if you wish to keep it for reference.

Junior Editors Quiz on ATMOSPHERE

QUESTION: Since there is no air in outer space, how can the atmosphere be hot or cold?

ANSWER: Besides answering, we decided to illustrate the moment of man's greatest adventure in space, when Frank Borman and James Lovell in the Gemini 7 spacecraft (left) maneuvered their ship close to the Gemini 6 spacecraft (right) which had Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford aboard. It was a triumph for America in space.

If, as our questioner rightly says, there is no air in space, there can be no atmosphere there either, for air is atmosphere. The sun's rays can travel through space, but they do not heat it up, because there is nothing in space itself to get heated; it is a vacuum. When there is something there, however, such as a planet or moon, the sun's rays will heat it very much. On the moon, sunlight would boil your blood unless you were protected. In the shadow of a big rock, you would freeze. This is because there is no atmosphere around the moon. Our atmosphere around the earth protects us by absorbing some of the heat by day and preventing the warmth from radiating out at night. If we journey outside our atmosphere, we must carry some kind of heating apparatus with us, such as the Gemini capsules had on their historic rendezvous flight.

★ ★ ★

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — Is there any way I can make for more painless removal of splinters from the skin.

A. — Press an ice cube on the spot for at least 30 seconds, and this will serve to numb the area, after which you can remove the splinter with a sterilized needle. Be sure then to apply antiseptic to the spot.

Q. — How can I impart a nice brown gloss to my pies?

A. — Beat an egg thoroughly with a small amount of water, then add a little milk and beat well. Dip your pastry brush into this mixture, and go over the pies when they are ready to place in the oven.

Q. — How can I repair the cracked handle of my hammer?

A. — Wrap friction tape around the handle and then, to prevent it from raveling or fraying, coat it with shellac, varnish, or a water-proofing compound. Even household glue will do.

Q. — How can I soften butter quickly for easier spreading?

A. — Fill a bowl with boiling water, wait a few minutes, then empty it and turn the bowl upside down over your butter dish. The butter will soften without melting.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Child Should Be Urged To Be Creative

Recently we pointed out that we may see creativity at its best in the youngster from two to five who has parents who appreciate his urge to explore, ask questions, and give wings to his imagination. He may be at his best at home, though he may, under favorable conditions, reveal creativity with a group of other young children as in a nursery school. Teachers of the primary grades and kindergarten, being peculiarly close to parents, may prevail on them to encourage creativity in very young children at home. But in spite of the wise guidance by the teacher, the youngster's urge to create may be hampered as soon as he needs often to conform in a group.

Dr. Garry Myers

DR. E. PAUL Torrance says that, "Creative imagination during early childhood seems to reach a peak between four and four-and-a-half years and is followed by a drop at about age five when the child enters school for the first time . . . there are indications, however, that this drop in five-year-olds is man-made (culture - made) rather than a natural phenomenon."

Practically all the researchers in creativity say or assume that most children of all ages would create far more than they do but for the hampering influence of parents and teachers. Their concerted plea to teachers is to allow their children to create and to stimulate them to create more.

Yet we can't place all the responsibility on the teachers. There are many factors inherent in the school setup with so many children together and the inevitability of some regimentation which discourages creativity. Moreover, while children of any age are sometimes stimulated by the group to create, many tend merely to imitate the group when not disagreeing with them.

OFTEN A teacher reports with enthusiasm on the usual ideas and creations of "her children." She tells about what "they" said or did. From her remarks we might infer that all the children or many of them were the creators, when only one or a few of them were. Her remaining problem is to increase the number of creators.

True, in a group and teamwork in which a number of children participate, many or all the group may evince some creation. But, as a rule, creation is an individual matter which gains more significance in individualized or personalized instruction. This is not an easy goal for any teacher to attain.

So the constant problem for the teacher is to identify creativity in the learner, especially in the elementary grades and to find ways to further creativity in him in as many classroom situations as possible.

FOR ANOTHER publication, Highlights for Teachers, I have written an article, "Creative Thinking." A reprint of this article may be obtained by writing me in care of this newspaper, enclosing a five - cent stamp for postage. My bulletins "Beginnings of Imagination" and "Stimulate Your Child's Imagination" may be obtained in a like manner.

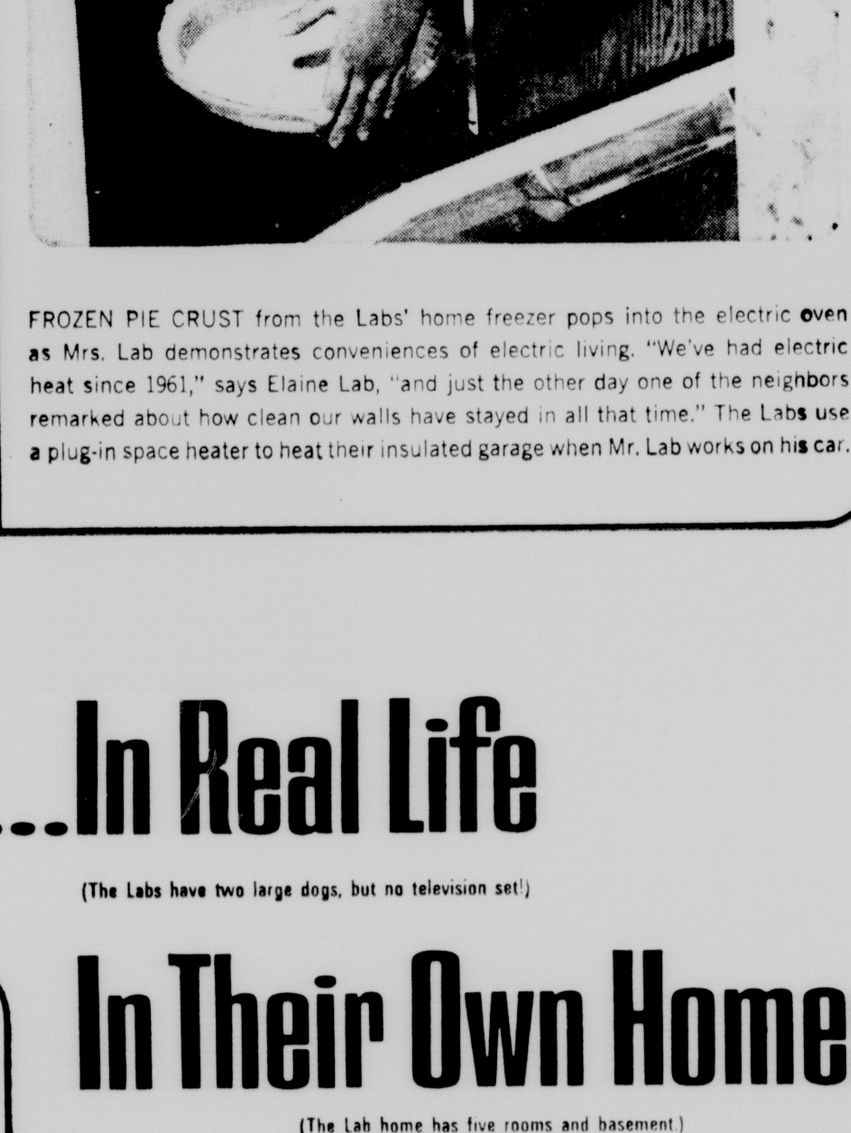
PUNCHY, JIM AND GRETCHEN enjoy the Labs' large fenced backyard. Surprised to find no television set in an all-electric home, we asked Mr. Lab what he and his wife talk about when guests drop in. "Oh," he said, "we talk about dogs and cars – and electric heat!"

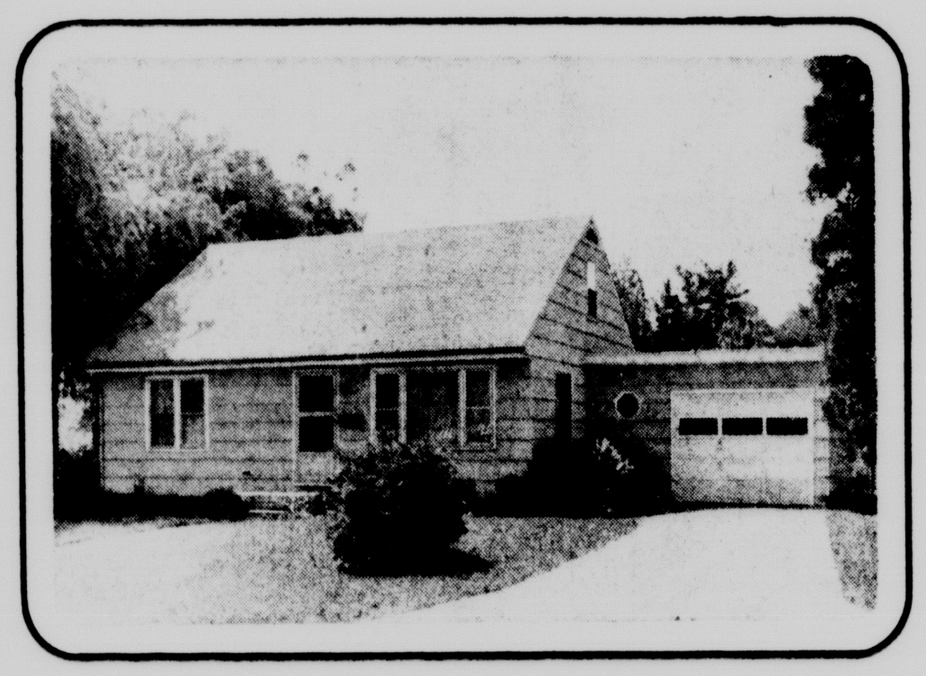


FROZEN PIE CRUST from the Labs' home freezer pops into the electric oven as Mrs. Lab demonstrates conveniences of electric living. "We've had electric heat since 1961," says Elaine Lab, "and just the other day one of the neighbors remarked about how clean our walls have stayed in all that time." The Labs use a plug-in space heater to heat their insulated garage when Mr. Lab works on his car.

Real People...In Real Life

(Mr. and Mrs. James L. Lab, an Ohio Power Customer)

(The Labs have two large dogs, but no television set!)



In Their Own Homes

PREFER ELECTRIC HEATING

It's Flameless!

"As near as we can figure our total electric home costs about $2.50 a month more than we used to pay for gas and electricity combined – and that includes the electric water heater and big freezer which we didn't have before. We notice mostly, how even the temperature is with electric heat – no cold and hot spots, and no more dirty streaks up the wall. It's a different kind of heat. Seems like sunshine. We set it at 68 degrees and we are perfectly comfortable. Before, with gas, we'd have to run it up over 75 degrees to get warm."

Junior Editors Quiz on ATMOSPHERE

QUESTION: Since there is no air in outer space, how can the atmosphere be hot or cold?

ANSWER: Besides answering, we decided to illustrate the moment of man's greatest adventure in space, when Frank Borman and James Lovell in the Gemini 7 spacecraft (left) maneuvered their ship close to the Gemini 6 spacecraft (right) which had Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford aboard. It was a triumph for America in space.

If, as our questioner rightly says, there is no air in space, there can be no atmosphere there either, for air is atmosphere. The sun's rays can travel through space, but they do not heat it up, because there is nothing in space itself to get heated. It is a vacuum. When there is something there, however, such as a planet or moon, the sun's rays will heat it very much. On the moon, sunlight would boil your blood unless you were protected. In the shadow of a big rock, you would freeze. This is because there is no atmosphere around the moon. Our atmosphere around the earth protects us by absorbing some of the heat by day and preventing the warmth from radiating out at night. If we journey outside our atmosphere, we must carry some kind of heating apparatus with us, such as the Gemini capsules had on their historic rendezvous flight.

FOR YOU TO DO: This picture and article will help you to remember some of the facts about the rendezvous flight. Clip them out and put them in a scrap book.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — Is there any way I can make for more painless removal of splinters from the skin.

A. — Press an ice cube on the spot for at least 30 seconds, and this will serve to numb the area, after which you can remove the splinter with a sterilized needle. Be sure then to apply antiseptic to the spot.

Q. — How can I impart a nice brown gloss to my pies?

A. — Beat an egg thoroughly with a small amount of water, then add a little milk and beat well. Dip your pastry brush into this mixture, and go over the pies when they are ready to place in the oven.

Q. — How can I repair the cracked handle of my hammer?

A. — Wrap friction tape around the handle and then, to prevent it from raveling or fraying, coat it with shellac, varnish, or a water-proofing compound. Even household glue will do.

Q. — How can I soften butter quickly for easier spreading?

A. — Fill a bowl with boiling water, wait a few minutes, then empty it and turn the bowl upside down over your butter dish. The butter will soften without melting.

Bringing Up A Family

Child Should Be Urged To Be Creative

Recently we pointed out that we may see creativity at its best in the youngster from two to five who has parents who appreciate his urge to explore, ask questions, and give wings to his imagination. He may be at his best at home, though he may, under favorable conditions, reveal creativity with a group of other young children as in a nursery school. Teachers of the primary grades and kindergarten, being peculiarly close to parents, may prevail on them to encourage creativity in very young children at home. But in spite of the wise guidance by the teacher, the youngster's urge to create may be hampered as soon as he needs often to conform in a group.

Dr. Garry Myers

DR. E. PAUL Torrance says that, "Creative imagination during early childhood seems to reach a peak between four and four-and-a-half years and is followed by a drop at about age five when the child enters school for the first time . . . there are indications, however, that this drop in five-year-olds is man-made (culture - made) rather than a natural phenomenon."

Practically all the researchers in creativity say or assume that most children of all ages would create far more than they do but for the hampering influence of parents and teachers. Their concerted plea to teachers is to allow their children to create and to stimulate them to create more.

Yet we can't place all the responsibility on the teachers. There are many factors inherent in the school setup with so many children together and the inevitability of some regimentation which discourages creativity. Moreover, while children of any age are sometimes stimulated by the group to create, many tend merely to imitate the group when not disagreeing with them.

OFTEN A teacher reports with enthusiasm on the usual ideas and creations of "her children." She tells about what "they" said or did. From her remarks we might infer that all the children or many of them were the creators, when only one or a few of them were. Her remaining problem is to increase the number of creators.

True, in a group and teamwork in which a number of children participate, many or all the group may evince some creation. But, as a rule, creation is an individual matter which gains more significance in individualized or personalized instruction. This is not an easy goal for any teacher to attain.

So the constant problem for the teacher is to identify creativity in the learner, especially in the elementary grades and to find ways to further creativity in him in as many classroom situations as possible.

FOR ANOTHER publication, Highlights for Teachers, I have written an article, "Creative Thinking." A reprint of this article may be obtained by writing me in care of this newspaper, enclosing a five - cent stamp for postage. My bulletins "Beginnings of Imagination" and "Stimulate Your Child's Imagination" may be obtained in a like manner.

PUNCHY, JIM AND GRETCHEN enjoy the Labs' large fenced backyard. Surprised to find no television set in an all-electric home, we asked Mr. Lab what he and his wife talk about when guests drop in. "Oh," he said, "we talk about dogs and cars – and electric heat!"

FROZEN PIE CRUST from the Labs' home freezer pops into the electric oven as Mrs. Lab demonstrates conveniences of electric living. "We've had electric heat since 1961," says Elaine Lab, "and just the other day one of the neighbors remarked about how clean our walls have stayed in all that time." The Labs use a plug-in space heater to heat their insulated garage when Mr. Lab works on his car.

PREFER ELECTRIC HEATING

It's Flameless!

"As near as we can figure our total electric home costs about $2.50 a month more than we used to pay for gas and electricity combined – and that includes the electric water heater and big freezer which we didn't have before. We notice mostly, how even the temperature is with electric heat – no cold and hot spots, and no more dirty streaks up the wall. It's a different kind of heat. Seems like sunshine. We set it at 68 degrees and we are perfectly comfortable. Before, with gas, we'd have to run it up over 75 degrees to get warm."
